Loyola University is a Jesuit university founded by the Society of Jesus and chartered on April 15, 1912 with ownership vested in the Loyola community of Jesuit fathers.

The School of Law was founded in October 1914. The Honorable John St. Paul, Judge of the Court of Appeal for the Parish of Orleans and later an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Louisiana, was the first dean serving until 1918. The first year classes were held in downtown New Orleans in the evening only.

Today, the Loyola School of Law operates both a day program for full-time students and an evening program for part-time students. The day program offers curricula in civillaw for students who will practice law in Louisiana and in common law for students who will practice elsewhere. The evening program offers only the civil law curriculum.

The Loyola School of Law is a member of the Association of American Law Schools and is approved by the American Bar Association. It is also approved by the Board of Regents of the University of the State of New York.

All educational programs and activities are open to all qualified persons without regard to race, color, creed, national origin, or sex in the true spirit of Christian love and charity and the Jesuit commitment to social justice.

Loyola is a medium-sized university with a total enrollment in Fall 1988 of 5,211 students made up of 3,599 undergraduates, 616 graduates, 737 law school students and 392 other students.

The faculty numbers 319 including 34 Jesuits or other religious who teach. The law faculty numbers 26 full-time members and 17 part-time members.

The geographical diversification of Loyola's general student body is good. Nearly a quarter of the students permanently reside outside Louisiana and represent 46 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and 49 foreign countries. Students also represent a wide range of ethnic, social and economic backgrounds. The law school's day program is made up of students from 35 states, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico.

The campus is located in a residential area of New Orleans known as the University section.

Fronting on tree-lined St. Charles Avenue where streetcars are the mode of public transportation, Loyola's Main campus faces Audubon Park directly across the avenue. The 19-acre campus is a collection of beautiful Tudor-Gothic buildings and modern architecture. Two blocks further up St. Charles Avenue is the recently acquired four-acre Broadway campus.

The School of Law, occupied since January 1986, is located on the Broadway campus. The new and larger facility has allowed for expansion in all parts of the law school, especially the law library. The building includes the Gillis W. Long Poverty Law Center, dedicated to the memory of the late Congressman from Louisiana who demonstrated great concern for the plight of the poor.

SCHOOL OF LAW

Loyola University is a Catholic institution of higher learning in the Jesuit tradition. Loyola's mission, therefore, in the broadest and deepest sense, is essentially religious and specifically educational and intellectual. The university is a community committed to:

- Excellence in teaching and scholarship;
- The search for the truth and a recognition of the critical intelligence needed to attain and communicate it;
- The promotion of faith and justice in all spheres of activity — the city, the state, the region and the world;
- Concern for the spiritual and moral development of each individual in the university.

While the Christian tradition is not wedded to any one philosophical, scientific, aesthetic or political ideology, it is not compatible with every point of view. The Christian view of reality is concerned ultimately with choice and action, and is premised on the concept of moral responsibility. Therefore, the university must provide an environment in which all aspects of campus life, including administration and the curriculum, reflect a concern with ethical values. While the Jesuit tradition is world-affirming, it is also deeply concerned with the promotion of service to others rather than self-aggrandizement. This commitment to social justice can be shared by all who are of good will, in keeping with a respect for ecumenical diversity and religious and academic freedom.

The School of Law is committed to excellence in legal education in the tradition of its spiritual heritage, with our goal being wisdom, not mere technical competence. We welcome all persons who sincerely strive for the truth and are prepared to challenge all assumptions in light of this commitment.

PROGRAMS OF STUDY

The requirement for the degree of juris doctor is 90 credit hours of work earned in the School of Law extended over at least three academic years.

Students who may wish to be admitted to practice in a state other than Louisiana should write to the Clerk of the Supreme Court or the secretary of the Bar in such state on or before registration in the first year class with regard to special rules for qualification for admission to practice in that state.

SKILLS TRAINING PROGRAM

In the academic year 1985-86 the School of Law began offering, in addition to its academic curriculum, a program in lawyering skills. Students entering in the fall of 1985 and thereafter are required to accumulate eight (8) skills points in order to graduate.

The program is intended to identify and nurture the component skills which blend together to create a competent and professional attorney. Consequently law students will be required to complete a minimum of two (2) skills credits in each of the following skills area: office practice, trial practice and appellate practice. Further, Loyola School of Law is committed to the proposition that it is every attorney's professional responsibility to render legal services to the poor on a pro bono basis whenever possible. The skills curriculum is designed to sensitize the student to this responsibility by requiring all students to show competency in the fourth skills area of pro bono practice.

Skills credits will be earned by taking certain courses in each of the four skills categories. Some of the course work will receive normal academic credit, as well as skills credit. The remainder of the credits will be accumulated by participating in mini-courses such as trial practice, motion practice, client counseling and interviewing, negotiation and mediation and office management, which will be taught by members of the practicing bar.

FULL-TIME CURRICULUM

The full-time day program offers two curricula leading to the juris doctor degree; one in the tradition of the civil law for Louisiana students; one in the general common law for those students who will practice elsewhere.

The curriculum for full-time students covers a period of six semesters of resident study. Resident study requires that the student carry not less than 10 credit hours a semester and pass a minimum of nine. The normal time frame for completion of the Juris Doctor degree is three academic years. Students are forewarned that this is a minimum time frame and that the program may not be completed by acceleration in two and one half years.

The maximum time allowed for completion of the degree by all students is five academic years of resident law study.

The following curriculum table gives the required courses and indicates elective hours for full-time students in both civil and common law programs. Those courses for students in the common law program are set in italics following the civil law course for which it substitutes.

These courses are identified in the list of Category I electives on p. 13. Also, students must satisfy the writing requirement as set forth. Furthermore, students must satisfy the requirements of the skills training program in order to graduate.

SUMMER SCHOOL; MEXICO SUMMER SESSION

A limited number of courses are offered each summer in an eight-week session. Law courses are also available in a special five week summer session in Cuernavaca, Morelos, Mexico. Schedules are available in the spring. A maximum of six credit hours may be earned in a summer session. All students, after completion of their freshman year, are permitted to enroll in summer school classes. Students are permitted to complete summer school regardless of the nature of their spring records. Summer school grades will be taken into account in the determination of status (good standing, probation, exclusion) for the fall semester. It is recommended that part-time students, as a rule, take electives rather than required courses in summer school.

JURIS DOCTOR/MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

The JD/MBA program is designed for those students seeking advanced education in business administration in addition to an education in the law.

Applicants for the JD/MBA program must apply separately to the School of Law and to the College of Business graduate program and be accepted individually to both. The schools together will determine whether the applicant is eligible for the combined program. The JD/MBA applicant must present satisfactory evidence of having earned an undergraduate degree as well as satisfactory completion of 30-36 credit hours of designated undergraduate business course requirements.

Normal degree requirements of 90 semester hours (Juris Doctor) and 30 semester hours (Master of Business Administration) are complemented and reduced to 81 semester hours (Juris Doctor) and 21 semester hours (Master of Business Administration). Each program is reduced by nine semester hours as each program accepts, as part of its requirement, nine semester hours from the other program.

Upon completion of the program, the student will be awarded two separate degrees. The requirements for both must be completed, however, before either degree can be awarded.

Students participating in the joint program must maintain a minimum grade point average of 2.30 (4.00 scale) in the School of Law and 3.00 (4.00 scale) in the College of Business Administration.

Students failing to meet all of the requirements of the program are awarded the Juris Doctor or Master of Business Administration degree only if they fulfill the requirements for the individual degree as outlined in the School of Law or Graduate bulletins, respectively.

JURIS DOCTOR/MASTER OF ARTS – RELIGIOUS STUDIES

The JD/MA program is designed for those students seeking advanced education in the academic study of religion in addition to an education in the law. Concentrations in ethics, biblical studies and religious studies are available in the M.A. program.

Applicants for the JD/MA program must apply separately to the School of Law and to the College of Arts and Sciences graduate program and be accepted individually to both. The schools together will determine whether the applicant is eligible for the combined program. The JD/MA applicant must present satisfactory evidence of having earned an undergraduate degree as well as satisfactory completion of 9-12 credit hours of religious studies/philosophy.

Normal degree requirements of 90 semester hours (Juris Doctor) and 36 semester hours (Master of Arts) are complemented and reduced to 81 semester hours (Juris Doctor) and 27 semester hours (Master of Arts). Each program is reduced by nine semester hours as each program accepts, as part of its requirement, nine semester hours from the other program.

Upon completion of the program, the student will be awarded two separate degrees. The requirements for both must be completed, however, before either degree can be awarded.

Students participating in the joint program must maintain a minimum grade point average of 2.30 (4.00 scale) in the School of Law and 3.00 (4.00 scale) in the College of Arts and Sciences.

Students failing to meet all of the requirements of the program are awarded the Juris Doctor or Master of Arts degree only if they fulfill the requirements for the individual degree as outlined in the School of Law or Graduate bulletins, respectively.

For further information on the M.A., please write: Director of Graduate Studies, Department of Religious Studies, Loyola University, New Orleans, Louisiana 70118.

ELECTIVES

In order to provide students with a greater degree of predictability in regard to the scheduling of courses, the electives offered in the School of Law are divided into three categories.

CATEGORY I consists of those courses which the School of Law will make every effort to offer every year. Insufficient faculty manpower or extraordinary circumstances may make it impossible to adhere to this plan, but whenever there is a conflict, these courses will be given first consideration.

CATEGORY II consists of those courses the School of Law will attempt to offer every other year. The same caveat applies as in Category I.

CATEGORY III consists of those courses which will be offered whenever student interest and faculty availability permit. Student interest will be consulted in determining which of these courses will be offered in any given semester. Courses in category III will be offered only when arrangements have been made to offer those in the first two groups. They may, however, be offered frequently, even yearly, if student interest and faculty availability permit.

GOALS OF LOYOLA

The following statement represents many months of work by faculty, administrators and students at Loyola. It was mandated by the Council on Academic Planning, approved by the Standing Council for Academic Planning and approved in July 1971 by the Board of Trustees. Revisions proposed by the Standing Council for Academic Planning and approved by the Board of Trustees in July 1973, January 1977 and May 1983 are incorporated in this edition of the Goals Statement.

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY IS A CATHOLIC INSTITUTION

Loyola, as a Jesuit university, is committed to the belief that Christianity presents a world view which is meaningful in any age. Although the message of Christianity is not wedded to any given philosophy, science, art, or politics, it is still not compatible with every point of view.

The person is central in a Catholic university. Its task is to equip its students to know themselves, their world, their potential, and their Creator. To perform this function properly, it must strive to be one academic community composed of administrators, faculty, and students, both laymen and clerics. This community must be composed in a manner fitting to our pluralistic society and ecumenical age. It can, therefore, be made up of many whose modes of commitment to university aims differ: of those who have dedicated their lives to the Christian faith commitment, of those who live non-Christian faith commitments, and of some who live no formal faith commitment at all. Religious and non-religious, Christian and non-Christian, all will dedicate themselves to the mission of this Catholic university, each in his own way. All will cooperate in the search for truth, either by exploring the inner dynamism of Christianity and its implications for the present or by provoking the quest for truth in others. All are bound together by a common search for knowledge. All are dedicated to the discovery and promulgation of truth.

The community in quest of truth has a reverence for creation, not only the creations of God and the creations of man, but for life itself as a fountain of creativity. Reverence for creation fosters universal concern and dedication. All who are concerned for and dedicated to the truth are welcome in the Loyola community. Only those who condemn the commitments of those who seek the truth will not find a home here.

The Catholic university must foster among its students, its faculty, and the larger community a critical sense. To think critically one must have a place to stand. Criticism must be based upon agreement on basic values and principles. Without this there can be no meaningful disagreement. Loyola stands on her Catholic commitment. This commitment is not the end of a search, but the beginning of an inquiry into other traditions, other regions, other religions. Loyola seeks to hand down a heritage even as she learns and teaches methods of thinking which will revivify the heritage and breach new frontiers of knowledge.

Because Loyola is committed to the Christian tradition, she should support excellence in theological instruction and scholarship as well as recognize the pre-eminent place of theology among the disciplines of higher learning. Catholic teaching should be presented in some structured way to aid the student to form his own world view.

Rapid change is a feature of contemporary life. Education should equip students to meet the rapid developments they will encounter and should enable them to make sound judgments as values undergo constant scrutiny. It is the tradition of the Society of Jesus to discern what is good and true in the movements of history. Loyola pledges herself to educate her students to meet change with equanimity, good judgment, and constructive leadership. Innovations in the direction of a more Christian and just structure for society are expected of the Loyola University community, her alumni, and her friends.

Loyola is committed to a serious examination of those conscious and unconscious assumptions of contemporary American civilization that tend to perpetuate societal inequities and institutional injustices. In this endeavor it is particularly concerned with those prevalent economic, judicial, and educational attitudes which are inconsistent with the social teachings of the Church.

LOYOLA CONCENTRATES ON LIBERAL EDUCATION

Loyola intends to achieve its goal of integrating the vision of faith with the remainder of human knowledge by concentrating on the liberal education of its students. While Loyola emphasizes studies in the liberal arts it is also committed to professional study. Liberal studies assist a student to broaden and deepen his convictions; professional studies assist a student to actualize his convictions. Planning and efforts, therefore, are to be centered on the achievement of excellence in liberal and professional education.

Loyola is aware of the need for innovation in undergraduate education. Because of her size and independent status, Loyola is in a unique position to explore new programs and approaches in education. Loyola should experiment with the full realization that lack of change often implies more risk than change itself.

Loyola's spiritual and material resources will be dedicated to the support of graduate programs if they fulfill one or both of the following criteria: (a) they are necessary for strengthening undergraduate programs; (b) they fulfill serious community needs.

LOYOLA RECOGNIZES ITS COMMUNITY RESPONSIBILITIES

Loyola looks forward to her place in the community of the 1980's. The American university of the 1980's will be more involved in community service than the university of earlier decades. Loyola stands ready to do whatever is in her power as an independent Catholic university to solve the problems of American society today.

Loyola should make a serious effort to probe and uncover the latent unity of the Southern people so that together they may build a richer future for their children. Loyola should make conscious efforts to prepare the educationally underprivileged for college life and to make a college education available to them. In particular, Loyola recognizes her obligation to provide such educational opportunities to the Black community, which historically has been deprived of this advantage.

Within the limits of available resources, institutes and programs will be created, developed, or discontinued as the need arises under the scrutiny of the Standing Council for Academic Planning. Among present programs are those that serve high school students and teachers, the educationally and economically disadvantaged, nurses, law enforcement agencies, and labor.

LOYOLA IS A COMMUNITY OF SCHOLARS

Loyola aims at developing and maintaining a distinctive community of scholars. The bond of this community is the desire of teachers and students to reach academic excellence in their pursuit, not of knowledge alone, but of truth and Christian wisdom. In such a community, students and faculty are in contact with centuries of accumulated wisdom and should be active in shaping this wisdom for a new day. By reason of their formative life within this community, they should be conscious of the achievements and failures of all of human history, particularly those of their own culture and time. As a result, they should be capable of principled judgement in the face of complexity and ambiguity, and humanely moved or divinely inspired to leave behind them a better world than they found.

Such a mission will best be accomplished in our day by a community drawn from many religious, ethnic, and cultural backgrounds, and through firm, vigorous, and dynamic programs in the arts, humanities, sciences, and law. It can be accomplished especially well by programs of studies which cross traditional disciplinary lines. Faculty and students are encouraged to collaborate in the formation of interdisciplinary curricula and programs.

The university's libraries comprise an essential component in the development of a community of scholars. The expansion and improvement of library resources are major objectives of the university. Therefore, Loyola should continue to participate in cooperative efforts among universities designed to reduce unnecessary duplication of library resources and to experiment with innovations such as information retrieval technology.

In sum, Loyola wishes to assist each person in becoming more aware of the problems of the society in which he lives and of his ability to correct these problems. Such a person would have a firm moral conviction to live up to his obligations to himself, to his fellow man, and to God.

THE FUTURE OF THE UNIVERSITY

Loyola is potentially strong in three areas that are in some significant way unique: communications, music, and religion. By achieving excellence in these unique areas and sustaining its strong undergraduate departments, Loyola will be a significant force in higher education.

The university should aim at a gradual and studied increase in size of the student body consistent with maintaining quality programs, close student-faculty contact, and maximum use of existing resources.

Loyola should increase and make more effective her ties with other colleges and universities in the New Orleans area. The New Orleans Consortium is a good example of how such effective bonds can be forged.

There is an obvious relationship between certain fields of study and the institutions and social movements of the modern city, state, and nation. A portion of studies such as business and the social or behavioral sciences should be done off campus with students examining and working in institutions and agencies actually practicing in these fields. Such study can be an academic activity. It should be undertaken as part of regular academic programs because it is directly related to the subjects for which Loyola takes educational responsibility.

PRIORITIES INVOLVING PLANNING

One of the principal responsibilities of the Standing Council for Academic Planning (SCAP) is to direct an orderly and systematic planning sequence that will ensure that Loyola is prepared for the future. To fulfill this role, SCAP must carefully examine not only all the elements of any new programs but also assess the viability and quality of existing programs. Economic constraints, educational and professional needs, and community expectations are necessary considerations in all recommendations.

As an additional responsibility, SCAP should be active in lending its support to the extension and development of the New Orleans Consortium so that fuller use of the combined resources of facilities, faculties, and staff may be made.

PRIORITIES INVOLVING STUDENTS

Loyola recognizes that value-oriented education must occur in the context of total human development, and is founded upon an appropriate integration of the religious and intellectual development of the student and the education of the whole person. Loyola students should be provided with a foundation of learning experiences which will enable them to develop further their personal values and life goals. For this reason, Loyola expects students to accept responsibility in determining policies, programs, and curricular requirements. The university involves students in the planning of their education and the shaping of their environment, and encourages student participation in the deliberations of faculty and administration.

Loyola is committed to the development of a culturally and educationally diverse student body and is pledged to represent this diversity in all programs and services which affect student life. One of Loyola's greatest assets is a student body which reflects the cultural diversity of metropolitan New Orleans. Loyola will make every effort to attract a sizeable percentage of students from outside of Louisiana and the Deep South to increase the cultural, intellectual, and demographic diversity of the student body. Special efforts will be made to encourage students to share their differing cultural perspectives in contributing to the campus community and its programs. In order to ensure this diversity and balance in the student body, and maintain the quality of admitted students, the Admissions Office will continue a careful evaluation of every applicant. Based upon this commitment to diversify the student body, Loyola balances ability and need in making its financial awards.

In keeping with Loyola's commitment to educational excellence, she will continue to enrich the student population with outstanding students who will attract other good students and faculty and stimulate all to greater efforts. In support of this goal, special enrichment programs have been established and will be continued and strengthened. Loyola also maintains a strong commitment to the average and the underachieving student and provides programs to facilitate their adjustment to the academic environment.

The university recognizes the importance of providing programs to facilitate the integration of the new student into the university community and to encourage the development of harmonious relationships among the diverse elements of the student body. Loyola provides counseling at every level. Academic counseling should be systematically organized and supervised by the deans, and faculty members should recognize their counseling responsibilities. Personal counseling, growth opportunities, and support programs to help the student meet the normal problems associated with making the transition from one life stage to another are provided by the Counseling Center. By providing the leadership of professionally trained personnel, programs will continue to be established to facilitate students' continuing personal and social growth, develop the skills necessary to cope with academic demands, and aid in identifying and pursuing purposeful career goals and future aspirations. Personal and spiritual counseling should complement one another. Campus Ministry does play a special role in assisting students to adjust both to university life and to understanding the full scope of a Loyola education. Programs which strengthen the student's social, cultural, and academic environment outside the classroom should be supported. Student activities and co-curricular programs which are educational and which prepare students for further leadership will be expanded. Such programs include student government and organizations, prayer groups, organized recreational activities, and the Loyola Community Action Program (LUCAP).

Loyola is cognizant that the student body increasingly includes senior citizens, career persons returning for further education, women preparing to re-enter previous careers, and other students in non-traditional programs. As part of the education at Loyola, it is important that these students be strongly encouraged to participate in campus life, and see the university as able to make a significant contribution to their lives outside regular classroom experiences. Facilities, programs, and services will be developed to support the active participation of such students utilizing professional staff, peer assistance, and community referral.

PRIORITIES INVOLVING FACULTY

A university is a community of teachers and learners. The knowledge and teaching ability of the faculty place it in a unique position of leadership. The faculty has primary responsibility for such fundamental areas as curriculum, subject matter, methods of instruction, research, faculty status, and those aspects of student life which relate to the educational process. The faculty sets requirements in courses, determines fulfillment of the requirements, and approves degree candidates for presentation to the President and Board of Trustees.<sup>1</sup>

Within the framework of excellent liberal and professional education, faculty activities should be a studied balance among teaching, research, and community service. These goals can best be realized by a stable, financially secure, and professionally active faculty. Faculty participation in university governance reflects its concern with academic excellence through teaching, research, other scholarly activities, and the maintenance of an atmosphere of academic freedom and responsibility. It is expected that Loyola faculty will have active professional interests which will contribute to the vitality of its work in the classroom.

PRIORITIES INVOLVING CURRICULUM

The university curriculum provides the students, faculty, and administration with a common reference system for the pursuit of academic excellence and scholarship. Loyola is committed to a steady exploration in and experimentation with curriculum design. Curricular reform should be planned and conducted by faculty-student committees working in cooperation with the dean of their college.

So that each undergraduate can achieve a liberalizing education, the curriculum should ensure that instruction be given in the traditional areas of the humanities, sciences, and the fine arts, regardless of the major field of study. This common portion of the contribution reflects Loyola's commitment to participation in the Judeo-Christian intellectual tradition. To achieve this objective, the curriculum must convey a grasp of religious thought and philosophical discourse which frees from ignorance and from mindless conviction and commitment. Each degree program must fulfill all university and college requirements but remain flexible enough to meet the changing needs of the field of study involved.

Differences in the educational objectives of the undergraduate colleges may result in variations in the extent of their participation in the common curriculum. However, the number of major courses required by each program should not be so great as to produce over-specialization of the student. Periodic reviews of the degree requirements should be conducted.

The development of a high degree of ability in expressing ideas both verbally and in writing should form an essential part of each student's education. Moreover, the student should be encouraged to develop a basic competence in those languages that best complement his own program of study. In keeping with this, Loyola should continue to explore innovations in instruction in both human and machine languages and encourage utilization of presently available technical aids including computer-assisted instruction. Loyola should also explore the possibility of greater inter-university cooperation and specialization in the areas of language, arts, and computer science.

Because of its intrinsic importance, education in the physical and life sciences has held an important place at Loyola. Loyola will continue to make every effort to inculcate scientific literacy in all of her students. Many patterns of thought in our time are grounded in the methods employed by the sciences. College students should be exposed to the disciplines of the natural sciences. Thus, Loyola will continue to devote sufficient resources to maintain her excellent program of service courses for undergraduates in other fields and will make every effort to recruit talented majors in these programs.

An ordered society needs men and women trained in the law and business administration. Loyola has produced and will continue to produce leaders in law, government, and business administration. Because Loyola is committed to the Christian tradition, it should provide the leaders of tomorrow with those values which strengthen our society.

Law and graduate students should be offered a liberalizing education, and their respective curricula should insure that instruction is given in the areas of ethics, professional responsibility and the humanistic concerns of their respective disciplines. Legal and graduate education at Loyola should also reflect Loyola's commitment to participation in the Judeo-Christian intellectual tradition.

The School of Law is committed not only to a theoretical and practical understanding of the law, but also to the highest ideals of social justice and professional responsibility. The Law School offers a comparative law approach to legal education through its complete common law and civil law programs. It is unique in the community in providing a legal education in the evening.

All Loyola disciplines should provide opportunities for study through seminars, honor courses, discussion courses, independent study, research projects, and courses designed by students. Loyola will continue her tradition of close student-faculty contact which has always constituted the basis of quality education.

LOYOLA CHARACTER AND COMMITMENT STATEMENT

The following statement represents many months of work by both Jesuit and lay faculty, staff and administrators at Loyola. It was written by the Task Force on Jesuit Identity and approved by the Board of Trustees in November 1980.

1. Loyola faces the years ahead with confidence. Relying on God's providence and assiduously practicing the virtue of discernment, we will plan for what lies ahead. Our society is marked by increasingly rapid change, growing complexity, and a burgeoning pluralism. These realities are not without their impact upon our community. Loyola is today a larger, more complex institution than it was thirty years ago. The student body and the faculty are more numerous and more pluralistic in their composition. Moreover, the proportion of Jesuits at Loyola has declined and may show further decline in the immediate future. It appears beneficial, therefore, that we take stock at this juncture and articulate, without difference or defensiveness, our self-understanding and our educational vision.
2. Our starting point as a community is our recognition and acceptance of the goodness of all God's creation and the ideal of human solidarity and fellowship under God. Further, we acknowledge the Lordship of Jesus and affirm that God was in Christ reconciling the world to himself. Around this central confession of faith we hope to shape our lives. It would be meaningless for Loyola to label itself Catholic and Jesuit were it not to center its self-understanding upon these truths. Though our world is broken and fragmented by evil, both personal and social, the enfleshment of God's Son as our brother grounds our hope for the eventual and ultimate victory of goodness and order. God in Christ has called us to choose freely and to follow in the footsteps of our Lord and to do what in us lies to nurture the Kingdom that is aborning in this world where divine and human activities intersect.
3. Motivated by the Christian vision of reality, Loyola undertakes her task as a Catholic institution of higher learning in the Jesuit tradition. Loyola's Jesuits have publicly stated that their "mission is essentially religious but specifically intellectual and educational in the broadest and deepest sense." In all phases of this academic endeavor the university community must strive to achieve the excellence that has come to be synonymous with the Jesuit tradition of learning. As a community of educators and scholars, Loyola's faculty and staff must be dedicated to excellence in teaching, in research, and in service to the larger community. The university must provide an environment conducive to growth of her faculty and staff and the development of scholarship and understanding of personal values that is so much a part of the Christian tradition. At the same time, concern for the student as a person is central to the Jesuit educational mission. Above all, Loyola will endeavor to develop in her students a love for truth, the critical intelligence to attain it, and the eloquence to articulate it. By word and example, Loyola will dedicate herself to educate our students in the Christian tradition, which we recognize as "not wedded to any given philosophy, science, art, or politics . . . [but] still not compatible with every point of view." (Loyola University Goals Statement)
4. While academic excellence and liberal education are the immediate goals of our university community, they cannot be, in view of our commitment as a

Jesuit university, the ultimate raison d'être. Academic excellence stands in the service of the full human development of persons as moral agents. In this regard, it would be well to recall the role of the Spiritual Exercises of Ignatius Loyola in the development of every Jesuit. After the Gospel, the Exercises are the wellspring of the Jesuit spirit. They endow Jesuit activity with a distinctive quality. Some understanding of the Exercises, therefore, is necessary to understand the ultimate aim of the Jesuit educational endeavor. The Exercises aim to enable a person, with God's help, to make a Christian choice in regard to the most significant truths and values of life. The choice may be a fundamental option or a conversion affecting the totality of one's existence. Again, it may simply issue from a periodic reassessment of priorities. Whatever the matter of choice may be, the decision-making process should be marked by certain characteristics. First, it ought to be disentangled from inordinate attachment, disordered affectivity. It must purge itself of bias, prejudice, and stereotypical thinking. Only so can it be genuinely free. Second, any significant option ought to be illuminated by human and divine wisdom. No pertinent light that comes to us from history, science, art or religious experience should be ignored. Third, significant choices must not remain merely notional. They must be woven into the texture of one's life; choice must incarnate itself in action. In the light of the Ignatian ideal, choices are to be made with a commitment to pursuing the greater good in any course of action. Capacity for truly human action is what Jesuit education hopes ultimately to achieve.

5. Because education at Loyola is person-centered and concerned ultimately with choice and action, the curriculum, spiritual life, and student life must on all levels and in all areas be concerned with values. Our goal is wisdom, not mere technical competence. In this regard it is well to recall that the Spiritual Exercises, as the Gospels before them, while world-affirming, condemn self-aggrandizement and promote service to others. Jesus, the man for others, is for us the archetype. Solicitude for others, not mere efficiency or mere bureaucratic convenience, must motivate us to a concern for all members of the university and to ever-widening circles of concern for our city, our state, our region, our nation, and our planet. Because of our human solidarity, a concern for one, even the least of his brothers or sisters, is a concern for all.
6. It is understandable then that in the face of our contemporary situation Jesuits the world over have recently determined that the best way to embody their commitment to the Gospel and the Ignatian Exercises is through the promotion of justice animated by faith. Accordingly, Loyola as a Jesuit university embraces the conclusion of the 32nd General Congregation of the Society of Jesus that Jesuit education must be a catalyst for needed social change, hence dedicated to fostering a just social order.
7. This commitment to social justice can be shared by all who are of good will, thus capable of enlisting the support of our entire community in all its ecumenical diversity and ideological pluralism. We must, therefore, in our policymaking, in our administration, in our entire curriculum, and in the totality of our campus life, strive to bring to life concern for justice to which our Jesuit and Christian heritage commit us. Further, we must challenge all assumptions in light of this commitment. Consequently, as an institution we must be person-centered, not merely bureaucratically efficient.
8. All members of the university community, regardless of their personal faith-commitment or value system, are urged to collaborate in the promotion, clarification, and pursuit of the objectives set forth in this statement.

With full respect for the complexities of a pluralistic culture, with whole-hearted commitment to the ideals of religious and academic freedom, and with renewed dedication to the ecumenical spirit of Vatican II, Loyola University is open to any person who sincerely seeks for truth and value. Dialogue and debate concerning controversial issues, even religious ones, are not only tolerated but encouraged. Yet, it should be recognized that the university has an identity defined by its mission that relates to every aspect of institutional life. Deliberate derogation from or subversion of these objectives is incompatible with the university's mission, destructive of its identity, and disruptive of the university community well-being. The university community should make every effort to reconcile any member who finds himself/herself in conflict with these objectives.

9. More could be said about Loyola's identity. However, what has been said should suffice to spur reflection and dialogue. Loyola is a community given to the pursuit of excellence in teaching and scholarship, personal and spiritual development, and to the promotion of justice and faith in accordance with its nature as an institution of learning. One of the leading challenges to any university today, and especially to Loyola in view of its Jesuit and Catholic character, is to teach an ethic of selfless service and sharing that decisively breaks with the present obsession with joyless and insatiable consumption. Education at Loyola succeeds only to the extent that it leads our community to examine how faith relates to society's systemic injustice. Moreover, it fails if it does not demonstrate how faith can be coupled with love to move us to action in the pursuit of justice. Jesuit education, then, is the education of persons for others, persons who will seek to act justly, to love tenderly, and to walk reverently in the spirit of Jesus as the man for others.

ADMISSION

Applicants beginning the study of law as degree seeking students will be admitted only in the fall semester.

Both the Louisiana civil law curriculum and the general common law curriculum are available in the full-time day program. Only the Louisiana civil law curriculum is available in the part-time evening program. Although there is no application deadline, applications received after May 1 and files completed after June 15 will be processed only on a space available basis.

Applicants selected must furnish a photograph, passport size, prior to registration. All transcripts and documents submitted become the property of the university.

Applicants who have attended another law school, and who have been excluded for defective scholarship, or who are on scholastic probation, are not eligible for admission to this School of Law.

Students in good standing at an approved law school (one that is a member of the Association of American Law Schools or approved by the American Bar Association) may enroll as transient students with the permission of the dean. Members of the Bar may be admitted as non-degree seeking students and register for courses on an audit basis.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applicants to the School of Law must present satisfactory evidence that they have earned an undergraduate degree. In certain cases, applicants possessing an exceptional record may be considered for admission by presenting satisfactory evidence that they have completed a minimum of three-fourths of the requirements for an undergraduate degree. Applicants are in competition with one another under a rolling admissions system on the basis of undergraduate grade point average and Law School Admission Test (LSAT) score. The LSAT score attained must complement the undergraduate record sufficiently to indicate the applicant's ability to complete successfully work undertaken in the School of Law.

For a profile of entrance credentials of the most recent entering class (both undergraduate grade point average and LSAT score), applicants are advised to read the Pre-Law Handbook published by the Law School Admission Council in conjunction with the Association of American Law Schools.

All applicants must register with the Law School Admission Services for both the LSAT and the Law School Data Assembly Service (LSDAS). Applications for both are available at the School of Law or by writing directly to Law School Admission Services, Box 2000, Newtown, PA 18940.

Applications for the Law School Admission Test must be post marked at least 30 days prior to the administration date. Information concerning late registration, as well as a list of the test centers and the dates on which each will be used, is contained in the LSAT informational brochure. Applicants should arrange to take the test as early as possible — preferably no later than February or March.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Applicants for admission to the freshman class of the School of Law must:

1. Execute an application form obtained from the School of Law and file it, together with the application fee payable to Loyola University, with the office of admissions, School of Law. The law school application matching form must accompany this application. (Note: Matching forms and complete information concerning their use in the admissions process are found within the Law School Admission Services Brochure.)

2. Register with the Law School Data Assembly Service (LSDAS). A transcript from each college or university attended (a cumulative transcript from the last school attended will not suffice) should then be sent directly to: LSAT/LSDAS, P.O. Box 2000, Newtown, PA 18940.

The LSDAS will analyze all transcripts submitted and will send a complete report as well as a copy of each transcript submitted to the Loyola School of Law.

Upon acceptance, applicants will then be asked to submit a final transcript, showing the award of a bachelor's degree or completion of 96 hours in courses having substantial intellectual content, directly to this law school. If undergraduate or graduate work has been taken in more than one college or university, the accepted applicants must arrange to have original transcripts sent from all institutions attended regardless of credit earned.

All students entering Loyola University for the first time must have the student affairs office at the last attended university complete a Request for Personal Information form. Its submission is a prerequisite to registration. All new students must also complete a Medical History Questionnaire, the results of which must be on file in the Student Health Services office prior to registration.

TRANSFER APPLICANTS

A limited number of applicants who have successfully pursued a portion of their law studies in an approved law school may be accepted as students with advanced standing.

Transfer applicants must present evidence of eligibility required of entering students the year in which they began the study of law. They must also present evidence of above average academic study in their prior law record. The right is reserved to refuse such credit in whole or in part. Transfer quality points are not used in calculating Law School GPA's or rank in class. At a minimum, one year's residence (30 credit hours) in the Loyola University School of Law is required of transfer students in order that they may be eligible for a degree.

READMISSION

An excluded student may petition the Faculty Committee on Readmission for readmission to the school of Law. Such a petition for readmission may be granted only if, in the judgment of the faculty, the academic record earned by the student in one or more semesters while enrolled in the School of Law was not indicative of the student's ability to complete satisfactorily the requirements leading to a juris doctor degree. In addressing such a petition to the faculty, the student should specifically explain any hardships or other explanations which account for the deficient performance, and explain why those circumstances will not reoccur.

A student whose petition for readmission to the School of Law has been denied by the committee may not petition again for readmission until two years have passed since his or her last enrollment or petition for readmission. Any petition for readmission made at that time will be for admission as a beginning student with no academic credit for prior work attempted. Such a petition may be granted only if, in the judgement of the Committee, the excluded student has demonstrated that he or she possesses the ability to complete successfully a course of law study and has pursued activities since exclusion from the School of Law that indicate his or her ability and determination to complete successfully the requirements for a juris doctor degree.

ACADEMIC REGULATIONS

In the spring of 1979, Loyola implemented a new comprehensive computer based student record system. Students who attended Loyola both prior to and after the spring of 1979 will have two transcripts that will have different appearances and form but will remain identical in content

HONOR CODE

Students in the Loyola School of Law are governed by an honor code. An elected student committee acts as a fact finding committee for the honor code. The committee reviews complaints and accords a hearing. If the complaint is found to be substantial and if the complaint is sustained, the student may appeal to the dean. The Honor Code is printed in full on page 72.

KNOWLEDGE OF REGULATIONS

Students are responsible for compliance with the regulations of the university and should familiarize themselves with the provisions of this Bulletin distributed by the Office of Admissions, the Academic Rules, Policies and Procedures pamphlet distributed by the Deans' office, the Registration Schedules distributed by the Registrar's Office, the Student Handbook distributed by the Office of Student Affairs, posted official notices, and instructions given to students.

At registration, it is understood that both the student and the parents or guardians of dependent students agree that the student will be governed by the university regulations and will abide by decisions made by proper authorities of the university regarding the individual student.

COURSE LOAD

Full-time students will not be permitted to schedule more than 16 hours of law work in any semester without special permission from the dean of the School of Law. However, a student who is registered for a full schedule in either program may audit any course he has not scheduled. He should receive permission of the faculty member offering the course. Full-time upperclassmen will not be permitted to schedule less than 10 hours of law work in any one semester. Freshmen must schedule 16 hours in the first semester and 15 hours in the second semester.

Part-time students will not be permitted to schedule more than 11 hours of law work in any one semester. Part-time upperclassmen will not be permitted to schedule less than eight hours each semester unless it is impossible for them to choose that many from the courses that are offered. Freshmen must schedule 11 hours.

Students must complete their requirements in five calendar years.

Students registered in the School of Law will not be permitted to register for courses in any other school without special permission from the dean of the School of Law. Permission will be granted only to upperclassmen in special instances. Except for those students enrolled in the JD/MBA program, no one will be permitted to take more than three hours of work in another school while enrolled in the School of Law.

WRITING REQUIREMENT

The faculty has established a requirement that prior to graduation a student must demonstrate writing ability by the successful completion (as evidenced by a grade of C or higher) of one of the following:

- (1) Law Review Seminar (Law 892)
- (2) Law Review Honors Tutorial (Law 891)
- (3) Legal Research (Law 898 a 2 hour credit assignment)
- (4) A Seminar in:
  - Advanced Property Law Seminar (LAW 801)
  - Law and Education Seminar (LAW 802)
  - Evidence/Procedure Seminar (Law 813)
  - Construction Industry (Law 819)
  - Advanced Torts Seminar (Law 826)
  - Contracts/Commercial Law Seminar (Law 827)
  - Law and Social Science Seminar (Law 831)
  - Family Law Seminar (Law 853)
  - Child Advocacy Law Seminar (Law 855)
  - Criminal Law Seminar (Law 862)
  - Juvenile Law Seminar (Law 865)
  - Business Planning (Law 867)
  - International Law Seminar (Law 884)
  - Constitutional Law Seminar (Law 877)
  - Sex Discrimination Law Seminar (Law 885)
  - Federal Taxation Seminar (Law 887)
- (5) Any new seminar or course or existing course in which a paper of suitable length and quality is either required or offered by the instructor as an option.

PERSPECTIVE COURSE REQUIREMENT

The faculty has also established a requirement that, prior to graduation, students must take one of three courses which give a philosophical and historical perspective on law: Jurisprudence, Western Legal Tradition, or Comparative Law. Other courses may from time to time be added to this list.

EARLY REGISTRATION

Currently enrolled students may participate in Early Registration for the subsequent term. Graduating students and transient students are not eligible. Students who have a financial obligation to the university may participate in Early Registration after they have satisfied the obligation. Early Registration is conducted by mail in November and April and followed by Continued Early Registration, during which time students may drop and add courses at no charge.

Students who register early are required to confirm their registration by picking up their early registration confirmation form in the Registrar's Office. Once their registration is thus confirmed, the students are enrolled and will be billed accordingly. If they decide not to return to the university in the semester for which they registered, they must officially withdraw before the semester begins. Students who fail to confirm their registration have their registrations cancelled.

REGISTRATION

Registration is held at the beginning of the term for new students and for students enrolled in the previous term who did not attend Early Registration.

Students who registered early may drop or add at Registration. Those admitted as transient students must complete their credentials during the term of their first admission and thus must be readmitted for the next term as nondegree-seeking students or degree-seeking students in order to continue their enrollment. Students with financial obligations to the university may not register until such obligations have been satisfied.

Handicapped students who notify the Dean's Office will be assisted in their registration by a staff member.

LATE REGISTRATION

Late Registration is normally the second and third working days after Registration. A late registration fee is assessed to cover the additional administrative costs, and a student may be required to pay tuition in full. Students with financial obligations to the university may not register until such obligations have been satisfied. No one may be admitted or register after the last day of Late Registration.

DROP/ADD PERIOD

For approximately five working days following of Registration, students are permitted to drop and add courses in the Registrar's Office. A $5 per transaction drop/add fee is charged to cover the administrative costs so that the financial burden of this option will not have to be passed on to the student population at large. Because of external and internal reportings on enrollments, deadlines for drop/add activity must be strictly enforced. A dropped course is removed from the student's record.

Registration for the audit grading option may be selected by students during registration or the drop/add period and may not be changed at a later date.

WITHDRAWAL FROM COURSES

Up to one week following the mid-term period, students may receive from the Registrar an administrative withdrawal from a course. Students receive a W in the course and the transaction requires advisor's and instructor's permission.

After this administrative withdrawal period, students may petition their instructor no later than two weeks before the last class day for permission to withdraw from that term. Based on the student's petition, a faculty member may award a WP, UW, or require the student to complete the course. Failure to obtain an administrative withdrawal or to petition the instructor may result in the grade of AF. The decision of the faculty member is recorded on the final grade roster. This policy is under review and may be changed at any time.

WITHDRAWAL FROM THE UNIVERSITY

A student who withdraws from the university during a semester before taking the final examinations of the semester forfeits all credit work done in that semester.

To withdraw officially from the university a student must:

1. Obtain withdrawal forms from the Office of the Registrar.
2. Obtain signatures of the designated officials on withdrawal forms.
3. Resident students must also obtain clearance from the office of Residential life

Withdrawal is not complete or official until all signatures have been obtained and forms are returned to the Office of the Registrar.

Those students who withdraw officially from the university prior to the last day for dropping courses as recorded in the academic calendar, will have the courses removed from their records. Students withdrawing from the university after the drop period but in the withdrawal period will receive “W’s”. After the withdrawal period, the grade is assigned by the instructor.

MEDICAL WITHDRAWAL

A student will be granted a Medical Withdrawal within the semester the student is incapacitated, providing that detailed written documentation is provided to the Assistant Vice President for Student Affairs from the student’s health care professional who will make a final recommendation to the Assistant Vice President for Student Affairs.

If a Medical Withdrawal is granted, the Assistant Vice President for Student Affairs will determine the appropriate refund if any, which will be granted as a future tuition credit. The tuition credit will not exceed 50 per cent of the semester’s tuition

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Students enrolled in one term may apply to the dean for a leave of absence for either the next term or academic year and process a leave of absence form in the Registrar’s Office. Students returning from a leave of absence are subject to the policies of the bulletin under which they were originally admitted.

CLASSIFICATION

Degree seeking students are admitted to a degree program and classified as follows:

	Total Earned Hours		Total Earned Hours
Freshmen		Juniors
Day Program	0-31	Day Program	32-59
Evening Program	0-20	Evening Program	40-68
Sophomores			Seniors
Evening Program	21-39	Day Program	60-90
		Evening Program	69-90

ATTENDANCE

Regular and punctual attendance is required. No student will be given credit for work done in any course in which he has failed to attend at least 75 per cent of the scheduled classes. Excessive absences will be recorded with a grade UW. The student has the primary responsibility to keep a record of absences.

Upon a showing of compelling hardship and in exceptional circumstances, the Student Petitions Committee may relieve a student of this requirement. Petitions for this purpose must be submitted in a timely manner—at least a week prior to the examination period. The committee may permit the student to take the examination or give no relief.

EXAMINATIONS AND GRADES

Examinations are given at the end of each semester. The alphabetical system of grading is used. The quality of work indicated by these grades is as follows:

Grade	Quality of Work
A.....	Excellent
B+ and B.....	Good
C+ and C.....	Satisfactory
D+ and D.....	Unsatisfactory
F.....	Failure

Other grades that may be given are:

AF .....	Absent from Examination
AU .....	Audit
AI .....	Audit Incomplete
I .....	Incomplete
IP .....	In Progress
W .....	Administrative Withdrawal
WP .....	Withdrawal Passing
UW .....	Unauthorized Withdrawal (Excessive Absences)

The “I” grade is to be assigned only when the instructor has been presented with serious and compelling reasons why the student should be allowed to complete the course at a later date. These reasons are customarily medical. The “I” grade is not an automatic extension. If the “I” grade is not made up by the end of the term subsequent to the term in which it was incurred, it can only be made up by special permission of the dean. An “I” grade which is not made up becomes permanent.

In the case of a student who fails to appear for an examination without officially withdrawing the following action will be taken:

1. Upon timely petition addressed to the Student Petition Committee, the student may when he or she presents evidence of sufficient cause, such as, personal illness, death in his immediate family or detention out of town unavoidably, be permitted to take a deferred examination. The record of the student will list the course(s) as “Incomplete.” Such examination shall normally be completed the next time the students are examined in the course.
2. In all other cases the record will be marked AF. This grade will be considered as an F in determining student averages and will indicate nonattempt of the examination for required course purposes.
3. Once a student receives a copy of the examination he or she is committed to a grade. If a student is present to take an examination, but for serious reason believes that she or he is unable to take it, the student should immediately advise the instructor of the circumstances.

STUDENT PETITIONS COMMITTEE

This committee will receive petitions from students for a variation from the rules and policies of the School of Law. Requests must be made in a timely manner.

GRADE POINT AVERAGE

A student’s grade point average is based on the credit hours, grading method grade awarded, and quality points. The following definitions apply:

ATTEMPTED HOURS are the units associated with each course. Typically, a three credit hour course meets for 150 minutes a week for 14 weeks during the Fall and Spring terms.

QUALITY HOURS are the units upon which a student’s grade point average is calculated. They differ from attempted and earned hours because quality hours do not include pass/fail courses and do include failed courses.

TOTAL EARNED HOURS and LOYOLA EARNED HOURS include all credit earned at Loyola plus the hours awarded by Loyola for coursework taken at other universities.

QUALITY POINTS are calculated by multiplying the points associated with a grade (A = 4, etc.) by the quality hours (a 3 credit hour course = 12 quality points).

GRADE POINT AVERAGES are calculated by dividing the total quality points by the total quality hours.

CUMULATIVE GRADE POINT AVERAGES include only the course work taken at Loyola.

HIGHER EDUCATION GRADE POINT AVERAGES for Law students are identical to Cumulative Grade Point Averages.

GRADE REPORTS

A report of the grades made by a student in his or her scheduled courses is sent to the student at the end of each semester. Grades may be released to parents or guardians if the student certifies that he or she is claimed as a dependent for federal income tax purposes. This certification must be made each semester at the time of registration.

Loyola’s grade reports list the courses, grades, Loyola grade point average (both cumulative and semester), the higher education grade point average, and the total earned hours.

Discrepancies must be appealed in writing to the Registrar’s Office within 30 days of the last examination.

Grade reports are withheld until all financial indebtedness to the University is satisfied.

CHANGE OF GRADE

An instructor may change a grade previously assigned by processing an official change of grade form in the Registrar’s Office. The instructor must request the grade change form, cite the reason for changing the grade, and obtain the approval of the dean.

JURIS DOCTOR DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

To be eligible for graduation a student must earn 90 credit hours, have a minimum grade point average of 2.0 on all work attempted, complete the required courses, and complete the period of resident study extending over a minimum of three academic years.

Quality points are earned according to the following schedule:

Grade	Quality Points
A .....	4.0
B+ .....	3.5
B .....	3.0
C+ .....	2.5
C .....	2.0
D+ .....	1.5

ACADEMIC STANDARDS

It is expected that a student should do satisfactory work and should therefore have a minimum average of 2.0 at all times.

A student who has failed a required course must repeat that course. A student who has earned a grade of less than “C” may repeat the course for credit. In such cases both grades will be posted on the student’s transcript.

ACADEMIC PROBATION

A student will be on academic probation at any time the overall average is less than 2.0. Students on academic probation may not hold office or otherwise participate in formal extracurricular activities of the School of Law.

EXCLUSIONS

A student will be automatically excluded from the School of Law if:

1. at the end of two full semesters of law school work the student's overall average is less than 2.0;
2. at any time thereafter the overall average of a full-time or part-time student is less than 2.0 providing the student has been on academic probation for the semester immediately preceding exclusion.

See also the rules pertaining to summer school at p. 32.

CAREERS

Students may have an undergraduate, graduate and/or professional career at Loyola University. Each career has its own grade point average which will not reflect courses taken that are at a level different from a student's career at that time. Therefore, for students who receive a bachelor's degree and return to take undergraduate courses as a graduate student, their grade point average at the time of the awarding of the degree will not be affected by this later course work. In addition, the graduate grade point average will not include quality points for undergraduate courses.

CHANGE OF MAJOR

Students may request a change in major (civil or common law) by completing the appropriate form and submitting the form to the dean's office. The petition may be made at any time and takes effect in the next term.

ATTENDANCE AT OTHER LAW SCHOOLS

A dean may give written permission for a student to take courses at other law schools, thus assuring the student that the courses will be applied toward the student's current program. An official copy of the transcript from the other school must be submitted to the Registrar's Office prior to the completion of Loyola's next term. No credit will be awarded for a course taken at another law school unless the grade is at least equal to the minimum grade point average required for graduation at that school (e.g. a "C" on the Loyola grading scale.) Credit earned at other schools will count toward total earned hours but will not affect the students cumulative grade point average.

ELIGIBILITY FOR GRADUATION — CERTIFICATION TO SIT FOR BAR EXAMINATION

Students must meet the specific requirements of their degree programs as set forth in this bulletin. The university, through the deans, may authorize changes and exceptions where it finds them desirable and consistent with the continuous and orderly review of its policies.

To be eligible for graduation, students must have fulfilled their specific degree program requirements, college requirements, must have a 2.0 Loyola cumulative grade point average, and have been certified to graduate by their dean.

In order to be certified for graduation and in order to be certified to the appropriate bar admission authorities to be eligible to take a bar exam, the student must satisfy all financial obligations to the university.

In the first part of the academic year in which a student expects to graduate, he or she must apply for graduation with the registrar. If unable to graduate in that term, the student must reapply for graduation.

GRADUATION

Loyola confers degrees in May, August, and December. After grades are received, the university determines graduation grade point averages and distinctions. Subsequently, the Registrar's Office posts the degrees and distinctions to transcripts. Diplomas and transcripts are not released until the student has discharged all financial and contractual obligations to the university. After a student has graduated, no change may be made in his or her record, except to correct a discrepancy (see Grade Reports, p. 30).

GRADUATION DISTINCTIONS

Graduation distinctions are determined on the basis of both a student's higher education and Loyola cumulative grade point average.

A student who has made a cumulative average of 3.4 on the Loyola cumulative graduates cum laude, one who has made an average of 3.6, magna cum laude; one who has made an average of 3.8, summa cum laude. These distinctions are inscribed on the diplomas, noted in the list of graduates published for the commencement exercises, and listed on the transcript.

COMMENCEMENT

Loyola holds a commencement at the end of the Spring term. Students who graduated in the previous December and those who are candidates for May and August graduation are eligible to participate in commencement. The commencement program is not a certification document of the university. The list of graduates is published in the next Bulletin.

DIPLOMAS

The diploma given to students upon graduation carries the university information, student's name, university distinctions, and degree title. Diplomas will be released only to students who have discharged their financial and legal obligations to the university.

TRANSCRIPTS

Loyola is authorized to distribute only Loyola transcripts, not transcripts from other universities. Only the University Registrar's Office may issue transcripts. Students may have three records at Loyola which comprise the official transcript: undergraduate, graduate, and law. Upon a student's signed request, all official transcripts are sent by the Registrar's Office to other organizations. Transcripts marked, "Issued to the Student," are given by the Registrar's Office to students. In accordance with recommendations of the American Association of College Registrars and Admissions Officers, official transcripts issued to students should not be treated as an official academic credential. Transcripts, as opposed to diplomas, carry notations identifying majors. Academic exclusion and dismissal are indicated on the transcript for students placed in this status.

POLICY ON RELEASE OF INFORMATION

Public Law 93-380 (also known as the Buckley Amendment and as the Privacy Rights of Parents and Students — Section 438 of the General Education Provisions Act) permits only the release of “directory information” about students without the student’s written consent. Directory information includes:

Student’s name, address, telephone number, date and place of birth, college, major, classification, participation in recognized student activities, marital status, sex, dates of attendance, degrees conferred and any graduation distinctions and dates of conferral, and the institution attended immediately prior to admission.

The law further provides that any student may, upon written request, restrict the printing of such directory information in the student address directory. The student may so indicate on the personal data form at each registration.

The law requires such written consent of the student for the release to anyone (including parents) of other than directory information with the following exceptions — (a) other school officials within the educational institution who have legitimate educational interests; (b) officials of schools to which the student seeks to transfer; (c) the comptroller general of the United States, the HEW secretary, the administrative head of an education agency, or state educational authorities; (d) in connection with a student’s application for, or receipt of financial aid; (e) state and local officials or authorities to which such information is specifically required to be reported under state statute adopted prior to November 19, 1974; (f) organizations or educational agencies conducting legitimate research, provided no personal identifiable information about the student is made public; (g) accrediting organizations; (h) parents of a dependent student upon proof of dependency; (i) in connection with an emergency when such information is necessary to protect the health or safety of the student or other persons; and (j) the Veterans Administration.

Loyola University administrators and faculty may have access to information contained in students’ records on a need to know basis.

Personal information shall only be transferred to a third party, however, on the condition that such party will not permit any other party to have access to the information without the written consent of the student and that the information be utilized only for the specific purpose for which it was released.

Under the law, any student has the right to inspect and challenge his or her own educational file, with the exception of letters of recommendation or other material when the author was guaranteed confidentiality prior to January 1, 1975. Positive identification of the student shall be required for such examination and a university official shall remain in the immediate vicinity during the examination process.

SUMMER SCHOOL; MEXICO SUMMER SESSION

A limited number of courses are offered each summer in an eight-week session. Law courses are also offered in a special five week summer session in Cuernavaca, Mexico. Schedules are available in the spring. All students, after completion of their Freshman year, are permitted to enroll in summer school classes. Students are permitted to complete summer school regardless of the nature of their Spring records. Summer school grades will be taken into account in the determination of status (good standing, probation, exclusion) for the Fall semester.

VETERANS AND SOCIAL SECURITY CERTIFICATIONS

Immediately following registration held in the beginning of each term, students who are eligible for benefits through the Veterans and Social Security Administrations can be certified by the coordinator of certifications in the Registrar's Office. In accordance with Title 38, United States Code, Veterans Benefits Loyola University certifies only those students who are admitted to a degree program and who are making satisfactory progress as determined by the probationary and exclusion policies of the university's colleges.

Reimbursement is certified for standard courses only, excluding continuing education courses. All inquiries concerning the certification should be directed to the coordinator of Veterans and Social Security Administration Benefits in the Registrar's Office.

LAW LIBRARY

The law library is a repository of substantial legal research materials. It houses more than 225,000 volumes, and microform equivalents and in excess of 4,300 current serial subscriptions. The collection contains the statutes and reports of the federal and state jurisdictions of the United States, as well as an excellent collection of encyclopedias, digests, citators, indices, loose-leaf services, law journals, and treatises. It also contains substantial collections of comparative, international, regional, and foreign law. Civil law and common law jurisdictions are equally represented by legal authorities on Roman, French, and Quebec law as well as materials from the countries of the British Commonwealth.

The library is a United States government documents depository and a depository of Louisiana state documents. There is a professional staff of seven qualified librarians. Reference service is provided from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., 6:00-2:00 p.m. (M-Th) & 1-5 (Sunday).

In addition to conventional resources, the library has extensive computer facilities in place to access information outside the confines of the library. The OCLC service permits the library to access a national database of over 15 million publications, most of which may be borrowed via the computer terminal in the library. The LEXIS and WESTLAW services allow the library to access the two major computerized legal research systems in the nation, whose databases contain Federal, local, European, British and French court decisions, laws and regulations, general and business information from papers, magazines and wire services, as well as law-related information from general and legal textbooks and journals. DIALOG, Lockheed's information service, contains more than 150 databases covering all areas of science, technology, business, medicine, social science, current affairs, and humanities. The library also makes available computer assisted instruction exercises. NEXIS, A Mead Data Central information service, contains numerous newspaper and magazine databases.

The library occupies approximately one-half of the School of Law building on the Broadway Campus. It has over 52,300 square feet of net assignable space, spreading over three levels. It has a shelving capacity for over 245,000 printed volumes. In addition to open-stack collection on all floors, there are 350 open study seats, 13 audiovisual and group study rooms, a 10-station computer lab, three computer instruction rooms, three photocopy centers, six student conference rooms and seven audiovisual rooms.

LAW REVIEW

The faculty and students of the School of Law publish the Loyola Law Review. A student board of editors, chosen from seniors who have published in the Law Review, invite outstanding students at the end of their first year of law school to participate in a program of legal research and writing leading to publication of the Law Review. Articles are contributed by law teachers and attorneys, but most of the published material is written and edited by Loyola law students.

ROBERT A. AINSWORTH, JR. LECTURE

Friends and admirers of the late Judge Robert A. Ainsworth, Jr. have endowed a lectureship to permit distinguished speakers to appear periodically at the Law School. Judge Ainsworth served as a Judge of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana and as a Judge on the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit.

BRENDAN BROWN NATURAL LAW INSTITUTE

The Brendan Brown Natural Law Institute, established through the generosity of the late Brendan Brown, a faculty member in the School of Law, sponsors lectures, colloquia and other scholarly activities in keeping with Professor Brown's love of the natural law and scholarly discourse.

EDWARD RIGHTOR LECTURE

The Grand Lodge of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the United States of America has established and funded a foundation to provide funds for periodic lectures in the School of Law in memory of Edward Rightor. Mr. Rightor was a past exalted ruler of the Grand Lodge and for many years was a member of the part-time teaching staff of the School of Law.

GILLIS W. LONG POVERTY LAW CENTER

The Gillis W. Long Poverty Law Center was established in 1985 at Loyola School of Law by act of the United States Congress in memory of the late Congressman from Louisiana whose career exemplified service to the needs of the disadvantaged. The center provides training, research and other support to organizations and individuals who are involved in the delivery of legal services to the poor.

LAW CLINIC

The Loyola Law Clinic provides senior law students an opportunity to gain practical experience in criminal, civil and administrative law in a live clinic environment. Participating students receive a total of six hours credit for two semesters of work in the program. Working under the supervision of attorneys, students investigate, prepare, negotiate, and try civil and criminal cases. A limited number of openings are available in the District Attorney and City Attorney offices. Preference will be given to students who have demonstrated an interest in exploring ways to expand the delivery of legal services to those in society who do not have the resources to secure competent legal representation.

THE PUBLIC LAW CENTER

The Public Law Center is a non-profit corporation, jointly operated by Loyola Law School and Tulane Law School with its office at Loyola. It is a unique clinical program devoted to training students in legislative and administrative advocacy rather than in courtroom litigation. The Center drafts proposed legislation and provides representation for groups traditionally underrepresented in the legislative and administrative processes. At the same time, the Center provides valuable training in public law for second and third year law students.

EXTERN PROGRAMS

Loyola School of Law participates in several extern programs established by various courts and agencies.

Federal Extern Programs

The judges of the US District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana have established an extern program in which the Loyola University School of Law participates.

Second year law students in the upper third of their class may apply to participate in the program. Enrollment is limited. The selection of externs is made by U.S. District judges.

The extern must be willing to devote at least 12 hours a week to work assignments over two semesters except for the examination period and preceding week. Two credits per semester on a pass/fail basis may be earned in the program.

The extern will engage in the preparation of memoranda in connection with motions filed pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil and Criminal Procedure. The extern will learn basic administration and recordkeeping procedures of the US District Court. A participant will have an opportunity to sit in on arguments on motions on which he or she has worked.

The Judges of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court in New Orleans also have established an extern program which operates in the same manner as the District Court Externships.

The judges of the U.S. Court of Appeal for the Fifth Circuit in New Orleans have also established an extern program through their staff attorney's office for second year law students in the top twenty-five percent of their class. The work required and credit awarded is the same as for the District Court Extern Program.

State Extern Program

The judges of the Court of Appeal, Fourth Circuit, State of Louisiana have established an extern program to which second year law students in the upper third of their class may apply. The duties of the externs are the same as for those in the Federal Extern programs. Two credits per semester on a pass/fail basis may be earned by those who participate in the program.

Other Extern Programs

From time to time other extern opportunities are available through various government or nonprofit agencies. These may be undertaken under the general supervision of a faculty member with credit and workload to be determined on a case by case basis.

MOOT COURT

Moot court, a comprehensive program in which students are given an opportunity to participate in intramural and intercollegiate moot court competition, offers training in the arts of oral advocacy and the skills of brief writing.

A moot court board, composed of four senior law students with prior national or international moot court experience or participation in the Appellate Argument Seminar, is responsible for the organization, administration, and selection of members of the national and international moot court teams who compete with other law schools in the region and nationwide.

Selection for the positions on the teams is made on a competitive basis, with each participant graded individually on each appearance before a bench of judges. Eliminations are made and selection based on those grades.

In the past, Loyola University School of Law teams have won regional competitions as well as the 1974 National Moot Court competition and the best brief award in the 1984 National Frederick Douglas Moot Court Competition.

PHYSICAL FACILITIES

The School of Law moved to its newly renovated and expanded 111,000 square-foot facility on the Broadway campus in January, 1986. The four-story building houses a combination appellate moot court room-auditorium, a trial moot court room, four lecture rooms, five seminar-meeting rooms, the law clinic, placement interviewing facilities, a student lounge, faculty and administrative offices and student activity offices. An extensive system of built-in audiovisual equipment has been installed for the use of students, faculty & staff.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Student Bar Association was organized in the spring of 1952 and is comprised of all students enrolled in the day and evening programs of the law school. It is governed under a constitution adopted by the students. Its purpose is to provide a means of closer unity among all students and to foster mutual cooperation and understanding between the law student body, the law faculty, and the legal profession. The Student Bar Association of Loyola is a member of the Law Student Division of the American Bar Association.

Membership dues in the Student Bar Association are $85.00 for all students payable at registration of the freshman year but covering all three (four) years of law school.

The Code, a law school newspaper, was established in the fall of 1960. Participation is open to all students. It is dedicated to the reporting of law school news and providing a medium for the expression of student views.

Delta Theta Phi national legal fraternity has established a chapter at the School of Law, to which all law students are eligible for membership. The fraternity is devoted to the stimulation of interest in scholarship, organized legal research and writing, participation in appellate court competition and fellowship on the part of its members. It presents a scholarship key to each member in the top 15 per cent of the senior class and the top seven per cent of the junior class.

Loyola Association of Women Law Students, organized in 1972, promotes the full involvement of women students in the School of Law and in the community. The association sponsors speakers whose primary emphasis is on women in various phases of the law and works to establish curriculum courses of interest to women.

Phi Alpha Delta international legal fraternity has established a chapter at the School of Law to which any law student is eligible for membership. The fraternity's purpose is to serve law students by stressing a proper blend of professional and social activity to prepare them for the practice of law, to serve the law school by supplementing the formal courses with an orientation program for first year students, lectures, interschool moot court competition, and other preprofessional endeavors in order to fulfill its motto "Service to the Student, the Law School, the Profession, and the Community."

Phi Delta Phi international legal fraternity is the oldest legal fraternity in the United States. Phi Delta Phi has established its 99th Inn here at Loyola Law School. Members are selected from those of the student body who have completed at least one semester of study and have attained a minimum 2.0 grade point average. The inn's main purpose is to promote academic achievement and service to the students, while at the same time fostering the friendship that has become a hallmark of the Phi Delta Phi tradition.

St. Thomas More Law Club was established in 1935, under the patronage of the English martyr and saint. The club is open to all members of the law school community, and is dedicated to the stimulation of an interest in the moral and ethical responsibilities of members of the legal profession. This purpose is achieved through the exploration of subject matter not always treated in the ordinary curriculum, by way of lectures, debates, seminars, workshops, community action and legal scholarship. The club also sponsors the Edward Rightor Lecture Series.

A. P. Tureaud Chapter of the Black Law Student Association, established in 1969, is geared to recruiting and maintaining the enrollment of qualified minority students in the law school. Members of the organization recruit minority students from colleges and universities throughout the region. Tutorial services are also offered to help maintain the enrollment level of minority students. The society, open to all interested law students, maintains contact with related national organizations and other law schools throughout the country that support similar programs.

Communication Law Society, founded in 1979, is designed to stimulate an awareness of the legal issues accompanying the flow of information in society. Through speakers, seminars, debates, community action and legal scholarship, members provide the law students and faculty with information regarding this important field of law.

JD/MBA Society was established in 1983. Though organized primarily for students participating in the program, all students are welcome to participate and learn about the relationship between the business and law communities. Additionally, Loyola became a member of the new JD/MBA association formed specifically for people with both degrees. This national association will be an aid in placing students graduating from the joint program.

The Association of Trial Lawyers of America, J. Skelly Wright Chapter, was organized in the fall of 1982. The purpose of an ATLA student chapter is to prepare students for a smooth transition from the study of law to the practice of law. ATLA's objectives are educational and primarily concerned with the practical aspects of trial work such as how to interview a jury, how to take a deposition and how to examine a witness. Each year ATLA sponsors a mock trial competition. This intramural competition is held to select a team to represent Loyola in the regional and national competitions. A series of seminars are offered in conjunction with the competition to provide a basic background of the trial process.

The National Lawyers Guild (NLG) is a national organization that has been in existence since the 1930's with a membership of approximately 8,000 lawyers and students. The Loyola chapter of the Guild was formed in 1982. The preamble of the NLG Constitution best summarizes the organization's orientation: "We place human rights above property rights."

International Law Society, an affiliate chapter of Association of Student International Law Societies, is dedicated to the understanding of various legal systems of the world. A series of seminars featuring international authorities is designed to highlight similarities and differences between United States legal systems and those of other countries. The society is an information source for summer legal study abroad and legal internships with foreign law firms.

AWARDS AND PRIZES

American Jurisprudence Prizes, The Lawyers Cooperative Publishing Company and Bancroft-Whitney Company, joint publishers of the Total Client-Service Library, and their electronic affiliate VERALEX Inc., in recognition of outstanding achievement, award a certificate to the highest ranking student in courses with an enrollment of 12 or more students and which carry academic credit.

The Association of Trial Lawyers-J. Skelly Wright Chapter Award is presented by the Association to the team members who competed in the ATLA National Student Trial Competition each Spring.

The Association for Women Law Students Award is given by AWLS to the outstanding member for the recent academic year.

Hon. Robert A. Ainsworth, Jr. Award. This award is made possible by the New Orleans Chapter of the Federal Bar Association in honor of the memory of United States Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals Judge Ainsworth, one of the School of Law's distinguished graduates and a long time ardent supporter of the Federal Bar Association. The award consists of a $500 cash stipend awarded annually to the student who, during the academic year has made the most significant contribution, through classroom performance or otherwise, to the study of federal procedural or constitutional law.

The Black Law Students Association Award is presented to the team members competing in the A. P. Tureaud Chapter of the BLSA Regional Finals, Frederick Douglas Moot Court Team.

The BNA Law Student Award is given to a graduating senior who has made the most satisfactory progress in his/her final year. The award consists of a one year subscription to either United States Law Week or the BNA Civil Trial Manual.

Dean's Award is given annually to the student who has maintained the highest average during his first year in the School of Law.

The Callaghan & Company Book Award is given annually to the students in the Moot Court course writing the best appellate brief.

The Client Counseling Award given each year by the Law Student Division of the American Bar Association to the team members who participate in this competition in the Spring.

Faculty Award as well as the Michie Company Award is given annually to the senior in the School of Law who has maintained the highest average over his entire course of study.

The Ralph H. Fishman Award is given annually by the firm of Sessions, Fishman, Rosenson, Boisfontaine, Nathan and Winn in honor of Ralph H. Fishman, a senior partner in the firm and an alumnus of Loyola Law School. The award consists of a $150 cash stipend to the student who has achieved the highest average in the course in Sales and Leases.

The J. Braxton Craven Award presented by the Student Bar Association to the participants in the J. Braxton Craven Memorial Moot Court competition.

Jack La Nasa Award is given annually to the student in the School of Law who earns the highest grade in contracts. The award is a copy of the English Translation of Planiol's Treatise on the Civil Law.

Law Clinic Award is given by Criminal Sheriff Charles Foti to the participant in the Loyola Law Clinic whose participation was the most outstanding in the field of Criminal Justice. The Law Clinic also gives awards for the student who is most outstanding in civil clinical work and to the student who excels in rendering services to the Hispanic Community.

Law League of Louisiana Merit Award. This award was established by the Law League of Louisiana and is given to the student who has most improved his grade point average during the first four semesters of law school.

Louisiana State Bar Association Civil Code Award is to be given to the graduating senior with the highest average in Civil Code Subjects.

Loyola Law Alumni gives an award annually to the member of the student editorial board of the Law Review who has made the most significant contribution to the Loyola Law Review in the field of research and writing during the academic year. The award is presented at the annual Law Review banquet in the Spring.

Loyola Law Alumni also gives an award annually to the members of the Loyola National Appellate Moot Court team selected to compete in the competition sponsored by the Young Lawyers Committee of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York for law schools in the United States.

Louisiana Trial Lawyers Association Award is given to the student whose performance in Moot Court was most outstanding. It is given by the Louisiana Trial Lawyers Association.

Edwin I. Mahoney Award is given annually by the Criminal Courts Bar Association to the student in the School of Law receiving the highest grade in criminal law. The student meriting this award will have his name inscribed upon the scroll.

Milton Sheen Award is given annually by Dr. Irving Sheen, in memory of his only brother, to the graduating senior whose law school tenure has best exhibited those qualities of leadership, fellowship, and service to the law and the community which were so well exemplified in the life of Milton Sheen.

The Moot Court Board Awards are given to the winners in the Moot Court Class Intramurals by the Moot Court Board. Plaques are also presented to the team members of the Civil Rights Moot Court Team which competes in the Spring Semester.

Antonio E. Papale Award is given by the Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity to the student in the School of Law who earns the highest grade in the common law course Contracts.

N. Curtiss Petitjean Memorial Award is given annually by Miss Irene M. Petitjean in memory of her brother, N. Curtiss Petitjean, a 1934 graduate of the School of Law, to the past year's president of the Student Bar Association.

President's Award, established in 1983, is given annually by the President of the Student Bar Association to the law student who has given his time and energy in assisting his fellow law students.

Joseph M. Rault Award for excellence in admiralty and maritime law established by Loyola University in September, 1963, is awarded annually to the law student whose performance in admiralty and maritime law was most outstanding. The award is a plaque, suitably inscribed, as a recognition of this honor, and as a symbol of interest in this professional field so vital to this community.

The Sanchez de Bustamante Award is presented in honor of the memory of Dr. Antonio Sanchez de Bustamante, a famous internationalist and Brother Francisco de Victoria, founder of International Law. This award is a hand-printed scroll presented to the graduate who obtains the highest grade in the International Law course.

Henry L. Sarpy Award is made each year by Leon Sarpy to the student in the day program of the School of Law whose performance in the course Louisiana Probate Seminar was most outstanding.

West Publishing Company Awards four sets of selected titles. The faculty will select the recipient(s) who have made the most significant contribution to legal scholarship. Legal scholarship is assessed on the basis of legal writing in addition to classroom performance.

American Bar Association Awards. The Section of Urban, State and Local Government Law has established two prizes. One is to go to the student who excels in the course in Land Use Law and the other for the student who excels Municipal Law.

TUITION, FEES, AND FINANCIAL AID

All regular students are assessed tuition and fees on a semester basis.

These fees and the tuition pay for only about 59 percent of the actual cost of operating Loyola for one year. The other 41 percent is made up with funds raised by the Annual Support Program from alumni, friends, faculty and staff, WWL-TV employees, foundations, corporations, revenues from WWL, and a small university endowment.

Applicants for admission to Loyola and students who need assistance in paying for their education are encouraged to apply for financial aid. Applications for financial aid are included in the application packet. Additional forms may be obtained from the Financial Aid Office.

Meal Plans (Board)

Loyola's meal plans are voluntary. Those who want the program may contract on a semester or yearly basis for one of the plans. For information on the meal plans contact Loyola Dining Services, Box 243, Loyola University, 6363 St. Charles Avenue, New Orleans, Louisiana, 70118.

<sup>1</sup>If more than one transcript is requested at a given time, the cost for each additional transcript will be only $1.00.

1989-90 Rates

19 Plus Plan	$899.00 per semester
14 Plus Plan	$849.00 per semester
10 Plus Plan	$799.00 per semester

Each of the programs listed above include membership in the Danna Center Card with a beginning balance of $10.00 that you can use as cash for any additional food service purchase you desire.

Checks or money orders for the meal plan of your choice must be made payable to Loyola University and sent to the address listed above. If you choose, registration for the meal plans and Danna Center Card memberships is conducted in the Orleans Room (Danna Center) at the beginning of each semester and thereafter in the Danna Center Card Office throughout the semester.

BILLING AND PAYMENT POLICY

Students are mailed a bill for the tuition, fees, and room charges. First year students and all others who have not preregistered are mailed a bill soon after registering. Returning students who have preregistered receive a bill prior to registration.

Full payment must be received by the Student Finance Office no later than 30 days after classes begins. Students paying after this date will incur a late payment fee. If a bill is not received within three weeks, or if an adjustment should be made to the bill, the student should contact the Student Finance Office so that payment can be made by the 30 day deadline. Subsequent failure to pay in full will result in the assessment of additional penalty fees at the university's discretion. Students who have not satisfied all financial obligations have not officially completed registration and are subject to dismissal. Students whose checks are returned NSF also are subject to dismissal.

Loyola will withhold statements of honorable dismissal, grade reports, transcripts, the diploma, and all other reports or materials until all indebtedness to the university has been discharged or until satisfactory arrangements have been made with the Vice President for Business and Finance. No one will be allowed to enroll for subsequent semesters as long as prior financial indebtedness has not been satisfied.

MONTHLY PAYMENTS

Although Loyola has no monthly payment plan of its own, students may subscribe to one of two plans offered by outside companies.

The first plan is a deferred payment, revolving credit plan whereby the parent or student contracts with Tuition Plans, Inc. to finance all or a part of the annual expenses and repay the amount borrowed on a 12 month basis.

The second plan is a prepaid plan which enables the parent or student to budget payment of required charges before the school year begins. Payments begin five months prior to fall registration and continue for ten months. This plan is offered by Educational Funds, Inc.

Descriptive literature concerning these plans will be sent upon request to the Student Finance Office.

REFUND POLICY

TUITION — Students who withdraw from the university or from a course are entitled to a refund of a percentage of their tuition. Students who withdraw must return a completed withdrawal form to the Office of the Registrar. Mere cessation of attendance does not constitute withdrawal. The date of receipt of the withdrawal notice by the Registrar will determine the amount of tuition refund. Refunds are a percentage of the tuition payable in the semester in which the student withdraws, not a percentage of the total amount billed. Only tuition is refundable. No refunds are made when a student is suspended or dismissed for academic, disciplinary, or financial reasons. Tuition refunds are made on the following basis:

1. If formal notice is received within one week after the beginning of the semester a credit of 100 percent of tuition is made.
2. If formal notice is received within three weeks after the beginning of the semester a credit of 75 percent of tuition is made.
3. If formal notice is received within five weeks after the beginning of the semester a credit of 50 percent of tuition is made.
4. If formal notice is received within seven weeks after the beginning of the semester a credit of 25 percent of tuition is made.
5. No credit is allowed after the seventh week of classes.

Students forced to withdraw for medical reasons should consult the Academic Regulations section of this bulletin for the University's policy on medical withdrawals.

ROOM — Students who withdraw from the university for any reason are not entitled to any refund on the cost of their room.

MEALS — Students may receive a refund on the meal plan, prorated to the date of withdrawal. These refunds must be approved by the university food service.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND FINANCIAL AID

Types of Assistance

Academic Scholarships: Scholarships are awarded to outstanding students with superior academic records and national test scores. Students already attending Loyola School of Law cannot receive scholarship assistance through the University Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid except to renew a prior year award. Upperclass law students, however, are eligible for privately endowed, Law Review, Moot Court and legal research grants through the School of Law. Loyola may consider that gift aid from other sources satisfies all or part of a student's scholarship eligibility.

In addition to the scholarships administered by the Scholarships and Financial Aid Office, the School of Law administers the following scholarships:

Law Firm Scholarships (Full)

Lemie, Kelleher, Kohlmeyer, Kennery, Hunley, Moss & Frilot Scholarship.

This firm will award an annual scholarship to a worthy Loyola law student.

Liskow and Lewis Scholarship. The firm of Liskow and Lewis will award annually three partial scholarships (equivalent to one full scholarship) to three students in the top of the class at the end of the Junior year (who will be in the senior year when the scholarship is awarded). The scholarships will be awarded in equal amount to the student ranking first in class and to two members of the editorial board of the Law Review with the proviso that at least one recipient be enrolled in the Civil Law program.

Mc Glinchey, Stafford, Mintz, Cellini & Lang Scholarship. An annual scholarship is being awarded by McGlinchey, Stafford, Mintz, Cellini & Lang to a selected Loyola law Student.

Phelps, Dunbar, Marks, Claverie & Sims Scholarship. This firm is awarding an annual scholarship to a deserving Loyola law student.

J. Mort Walker, Jr. Memorial Scholarship Fund. The firm of Jones, Walker, Waechter, Poitevent, Carrère & Denègre has established a scholarship for a Louisiana Civil Law student enrolled at Loyola. The scholarship is in memory of Mr. J. Mort Walker Jr., an alumnus of the School of Law and a former partner with the firm.

Law firm Scholarships (Partial)

Adams & Reese. The firm of Adams and Reese will provide eight first year students with partial scholarships. Students should be from the New Orleans area, in the top 15 percent of their class and be in financial need

Blue, Williams & Buckley. An annual partial scholarship will be awarded to a Loyola law student by the firm of Blue, Williams & Buckley.

Peter J. Butler Scholarship. This scholarship has been established to provide assistance to students at Loyola School of Law on the basis of academic excellence and financial need.

Deutsch, Kerrigan & Stiles Scholarship. Loyola Law School alumni and friends in the firm of Deutsch, Kerrigan & Stiles provide an annual partial scholarship in the name of the firm.

Ralph H. Fishman Scholarship. The firm of Sessions, Fishman, Rosenson, Boisfontaine, Nathan and Winn established an annual partial scholarship in honor of Ralph H. Fishman, a senior partner in the firm and an alumnus of Loyola Law School. The scholarship is given to a junior student who, in the judgement of the faculty, has demonstrated excellence in the field of Commercial Law. It may be awarded to either a Civil Law or Common Law student.

Gordon, Arata, McCollam, & Duplantis Scholarship An annual partial scholarship is awarded to a selected Loyola Law Student by the firm of Gordon, Arata, McCollam & Duplantis.

Hebert, Mouledoux & Bland Scholarship This firm has established an annual partial scholarship to a second year student and to a third year student who are in need of financial assistance and are working their way through law school

The Rosaria Sarah LaNasa Memorial Scholarship Fund. This fund was established in memory of Rosaria Sarah LaNasa, mother of Jack LaNasa and Province Sarah LaNasa. These partial scholarships are awarded to students who are qualified to serve as research assistants to faculty members in the School of Law.

The Louisiana Association of Defense Counsel Scholarship. The LADC gives a partial scholarship on the basis of academic excellence and financial need to be selected during the Spring of the student's Junior year in law school.

Montgomery, Barnett, Brown, Read, Hammond & Mintz Scholarship. The firm of Montgomery, Barnett, Brown, Read, Hammond & Mintz will award partial annual scholarships to students at Loyola School of Law based on academic excellence and financial need.

Stone, Pigman, Walther, Wittmann & Hutchinson Scholarship. The firm of Stone, Pigman, Walther, Wittmann & Hutchinson is awarding partial scholarships to the editors of the Law Review and the Board Members of the Moot Court Program.

Endowed Scholarships and Other Annual Scholarships

Warren E. Mouledoux Memorial Scholarship. This endowed scholarship was established by the family and friends of Warren E. Mouledoux of the class of 1948. It is to be awarded annually to an upperclass student on the basis of need and merit.

Daniel F. J. Picchio Memorial Scholarship. This endowed scholarship was established in memory of Daniel F. J. Picchio, class of 1979, by his classmates, friends and teachers. It is to be awarded annually to an officer of the Student Bar Association on the basis of need and merit.

Jack LaNasa Scholarships. This scholarship has been established in memory of Jack LaNasa, husband of Josie Greco LaNasa and brother of Providence Sara LaNasa. It is financed by an annual grant from the LaNasa-Greco Foundation and is awarded to a deserving student in the School of Law in need of financial assistance.

Hannah and Herman Levy Scholarship Fund of Lupin Foundation. This fund has been endowed by the Lupin Foundation and by Dr. Louis Levy II and his family in loving memory of his parent. Funds are awarded by the Law Admissions Office, with the approval of the Foundation, to entering candidates who exhibit the Levy Family's dedication to learning academic excellence.

The N. Curtiss Petitjean Memorial Scholarship. This award has been established by Miss Irene M. Petitjean in loving memory of her brother Mr. N. Curtiss Petitjean, a 1934 graduate of the School of Law and distinguished member of the Louisiana legal community. The award is presented annually to a member of the full-time freshman program at the conclusion of the first year of studies. The student is selected on the basis of integrity of character and concern for others as well as financial need. The student selected shall maintain the award during both the second and third year of studies.

Clem H. Sehrt Scholarship. This scholarship is in honor of one of Loyola School of Law's most distinguished graduates. It is made possible through the generous contributions of his family and friends. The scholarship is awarded to a student on the basis of need, academic performance, and participation in school activities.

Alfred J. Bonomo, Sr. Family Scholarships. A generous bequest by Mrs. Beatrice Jung Bonomo, the widow of Alfred J. Bonomo, Sr. has established a number of scholarships in the School of Law. These scholarships will be given to students who are qualified to serve as research assistants to the faculty of the School of Law. Alfred J. Bonomo, Sr. was a member of the faculty of the School of Law from 1913 to 1940 and between 1926 and 1932 served as assistant dean.

Ruth and Frank Normann Scholarship. This scholarship has been established in loving memory of Ruth Hernandez Normann and Frank S. Normann, Sr. by their children, and is to be awarded to a student in the evening division on the basis of need and scholarship.

Lydia Knobloch McAulay Scholarship. This scholarship has been established in memory of Lydia Knobloch McAulay who served the University for fifty years. She held a position in the finance office becoming Assistant Treasurer and in more recent years was Senior Evaluator in the university Admissions Office. She served the School of Law for many years as the moderator of the Law Wives. The scholarship is made possible by gifts from Dean Emeritus John J. McAulay, her family and friends. Priority will be given to a student with financial need.

Jeffrey J. Clemente Scholarship. This scholarship was established in memory of Jeffrey J. Clemente, Class of 1981, by his family and friends. It is financed by periodic grants from a trust set up in his name and will be awarded according to financial need.

Other Gift Aid: Some grants are not available to students who have earned a baccalaureate degree.

Campus Jobs: Both the federal government and Loyola provide employment opportunities for students who can demonstrate financial need and who want to work on campus.

Loans: Long-term, low-interest loans provide students with an opportunity to borrow a part of the costs of education. The loans must begin to be repaid when the student is no longer enrolled at an approved school. Borrowers must be able to demonstrate financial need for federally sponsored loans. Loan sources include the National Direct Student Loan, the ALAS/PLUS Loan, and the Guaranteed Student Loan. For those borrowers unable to locate their own lender, Loyola participates in the Law School Assured Access Program. Loyola sponsors its own loan program for students who are not eligible for the need based loans.

MAKING APPLICATION

A financial aid request is part of the admission application brochure. The application for admission should be submitted first. The financial aid request form should then be mailed directly to the Scholarships and Financial Aid Office. In addition to the financial aid request form, all applicants for financial aid must complete the Financial Aid Form (FAF) of the College Entrance Examination Board and request that a financial statement and need analysis report be submitted to the Scholarships and Financial Aid Office. FAF's are readily available from college and university financial aid offices in your own area. The student applicant must furnish a photocopy of his/her tax return. If the student is married, the spouse must also submit his/her tax return, even if the student were not married in the base year. If the income and assets of parents were required to be included on the Financial Statement and Needs Analysis Report, the parents must also submit a photocopy of their 1986 federal tax return. The scholarship and financial aid file is not considered to be complete and cannot be evaluated until the request form, financial statement and need analysis report, and income tax returns have been submitted.

If not already enrolled at Loyola, New Orleans, a student must also supply the Scholarships and Financial Aid Office with a Financial Aid Transcript from each college or university attended. The student should contact the Financial Aid Office at each college or university giving dates of attendance and student I.D. or Social Security number and request that a Financial Aid Transcript be sent to the Scholarships and Financial Aid Office at Loyola University, New Orleans, LA 70118. Even if financial assistance was never received, the student must provide the Financial Aid Transcript in order to comply with federal aid regulations.

Offers of a financial assistance are not made if admission status is pending or uncertain or if the student has unpaid obligations to Loyola for prior periods of enrollment. The student may expect a response on the completed financial aid application within two to four weeks of acceptance to the School of Law.

Students are urged to apply early and to supply all documentation well in advance of the beginning of the enrollment period. Offers which can be made before June 1 are considered timely and should meet full need.

REASONABLE ACADEMIC PROGRESS

In order to be eligible to receive assistance from any Federal source, a student must be found to be making reasonable progress toward the completion of his degree program in addition to the demonstration of requisite need. A Loyola law student is said to be making progress when he completes at least 9 semester hours for each regular semester (fall or spring) of enrollment, and maintains at least a 2.00 grade point average. A student who fails in either respect will be placed on FINANCIAL AID PROBATION and allowed to continue to receive assistance as long as he meets the terms of the probation. The terms of a FINANCIAL AID PROBATION will not necessarily coincide with the terms of an ACADEMIC PROBATION imposed by the Law School.

Additional details are available in the Scholarship & Financial Aid Office.

MINORITY FUNDING

In accord with its commitment to extend excellence in education to all qualified students, regardless of race, color, creed, national origin or sex, and being cognizant of the underrepresentation of members of the Black race within the legal profession, Loyola has established a fund to assist members of this group to obtain a legal education. Applicants should consult the Director of Admissions for further information concerning this program.

OTHER FUNDING

The Council on Legal Education Opportunity (CLEO) conducts summer tutorial programs each year to assist students of "low income" or "disadvantaged background" to obtain entrance into the School of Law. Those students successfully completing the program will, upon enrollment in the School of Law, be awarded an annual living stipend. For further information students should contact: CLEO, 1800 M St., N.W., Suite 290, North Lobby, Washington, D.C. 20036. Minority students may also wish to contact the Earl Warren Legal Training Program, Inc., 10 Columbus Circle, New York, NY 10019 for further information relative to funding.

RELIGIOUS LIFE

Dean of Campus Ministry: Rev. Neal McDermott, O.P., D.Min.

School of Law Chaplain: Carol Potter, B.A., M.A., J.D., M.Div.

Loyola is a Catholic university. Its Catholic traditions, practices, and aspirations are at the center of its institutional commitment. Loyola is a Christian community. Members of the Loyola family live and work together to make the reign of God a reality in the academic community and the larger community.

The Office of Campus Ministry plays a central role in nurturing the growth of Christian life within the Loyola community. The mission of the Office of Campus Ministry is to serve as a catalyst to deepen the faith commitment where it already exists and to challenge men and women to such commitment where it does not exist. The Office of Campus Ministry is cast, therefore, in the prophetic role of affirming the distinctive Catholic religious heritage of the university and of setting the tone for its ongoing renewal.

The Chaplain has her office on the fourth floor of the Law School and is available for counseling, planning special programs, and ecumenical services.

LITURGY

The Eucharist is celebrated in Ignatius Chapel (first floor of Bobet Hall) three times daily when classes are in session and three times on Sunday. At the Broadway Campus, the Eucharist is celebrated once a day Monday through Friday in the St. Luke Room on the first floor of the Arts & Services building. Active participation in these liturgies is sought from all who will contribute their talents as musicians, lectors, ministers of the Eucharist and for other needs.

Reconciliation with God and with one's neighbor is a continuing need and earnest desire of the Christian who strives to live the faith conscientiously. Campus Ministry is intent not only on providing ample opportunity for receiving this sacrament in the context of private confession but also on inculcating the communal nature of sin and repentance by means of penance services at regular intervals throughout the year.

Although the focus of Campus Ministry's endeavor is the university community of students, faculty and staff, the liturgical services held in Ignatius Chapel and St. Luke Room are open to the public to the extent that space allows.

CAMPUS MINISTRY

Although Campus Ministry revolves around liturgical worship and sacramental celebration, its pastoral concern for the university community extends to many other services and programs. Among these are off campus Ignatian (silent) retreats, faith-sharing weekends, camping retreats, and "Awakening" experiences, sacramental preparation courses (RCIA), including pre-marital interviews, and on-going spiritual counseling. There is a charismatic prayer meeting on campus as well as several other prayer groups and Bible study seminars.

The mission of the university as such is the pursuit of truth through instruction and scholarly research. Campus Ministry has a particular interest in and affinity for the work of the theologian within this larger academic enterprise. It has a special responsibility to nourish the intellectual dimension of the faith commitment of its constituents, which it tries to fulfill by sponsoring lectures, films, panel discussions, and other presentations that address the issues of both faith and justice in our time and place.

LUCAP

The Loyola University Community Action Program (LUCAP), an organization within Campus Ministry, provides educational and apostolic experiences beyond the campus. Student volunteers are involved in recreational, tutorial, and rehabilitation programs for prisoners, emotionally disturbed, underprivileged, handicapped, disadvantaged, and elderly persons in one of many centers in New Orleans.

STUDENT LIFE

Student Life at Loyola is based on the philosophy that education occurs in the context of total human development. Development of the whole person involves not only the intellectual development of the student but also the moral, social, cultural, and physical development of the individual. Programs and services exist which provide opportunities for this total educational experience.

ACADEMIC COUNSELING

For those students who need advice and counseling about their law program, the members of the faculty are available on a designated basis. The dean, and associate deans will assist the student with scheduling courses and are available to discuss other problems that may arise in the academic year.

COUNSELING

The Counseling, Career Development and Placement Center administers a program of personal, educational, and career counseling and testing services to all registered students. It is intended to serve students who want and need professional assistance with career plans, academic goals, or with personal emotional concerns affecting their adjustment, motivation, and feelings. This service is offered on an individual and confidential basis.

STUDENT HOUSING

Cabra Hall, located on the Broadway Campus adjacent to the School of Law, is residence hall primarily housing undergraduate upper-class men and women. Law students may apply for housing in Cabra Hall and every effort will be made to house law students in same suite. There are no accommodations for married students on campus. The Office of Residential Life operates an active computerized apartment listing service.

Cabra Hall is a five-story residence with a capacity of housing 215 students. Each suite houses eight students in double occupancy rooms with a shared bath, living room, multi-purpose room, and an individual heating and air-conditioning control. Each room is furnished with two closets, two single beds, two chests of drawers, two desks, bulletin boards, and local telephone service. Mail boxes, laundry facilities, study lounges, computer room, television lounge, a community kitchen and a sundeck are located within the residence hall. A limited food service facility is located immediately adjacent to Cabra Hall in the Broadway Activities Center. The main campus provides a full-service program for students interested in the Board Program. A free Shuttle Service connects the Broadway and main campus during posted hours.

Requests for further information and/or accommodations should be forwarded directly to the Office of Residential Life, following notification of acceptance to the School of Law. Reservations are confirmed only after receipt of a signed contract and a $100 application fee, of which $50 is refundable if the Office of Residential Life is notified of the cancellation in writing by July 1. The total application fee is credited as partial payment for the first semester room fee.

Housing contracts are for a full academic year (Fall and Spring semester). A significant financial penalty is assessed for breaking the contract. Students residing in University housing are required to have adequate sickness and accident insurance coverage. Students without their own personal insurance coverage will be required to enroll in the University sponsored insurance plan.

STUDENT HEALTH SERVICE

Loyola's health service, located on Main campus, is for both resident and nonresident, full-time and part-time students who have provided the health service with a completed medical history form. The Student Health Service is directed by a Registered Nurse (Administrative Director) under the Supervision of a medical doctor (Medical Director). The Health Service staff also includes two full-time registered nurses and a full-time licensed practical nurse who resides on campus and is responsible for emergency evening medical care. Trained student Health Assistants are available on campus for night, weekend, and holiday emergency medical referral service. Four days a week, a physician is available during designated hours to see students. The Health Service also maintains extensive lists of off-campus medical specialists for students requiring special care. Treatments by health center personnel is provided at no charge to the student. Medicines, referrals to off-campus medical specialists, laboratory tests, and hospitalization are at the student's expense. All services provided and communications with medical personnel are confidential as dictated by the medical code of ethics.

For good cause, the university may require a physical or psychiatric examination while a student is in attendance. Results of these examinations may be used to determine a student's suitability to continue in attendance at the university.

HEALTH INSURANCE

The university sponsored health insurance program covering sickness and accident is strongly recommended for all students, especially those students who are from out-of-town. Resident students are required to present proof of personal health insurance coverage or they must enroll in the university endorsed health insurance plan. Students who reside outside the United States are required to subscribe to the University insurance plan. The group plan covers a student for 12 months for a yearly premium. Plans for married students and their families are also available. Students desiring health insurance information should contact the Student Health Service.

IDENTIFICATION CARDS

Picture identification cards for new students are free during the registration period. After class starts all cards cost $10 each. Only one I.D. Card is allowed per student, all others must be turned in to Security. The cards are used for admittance to Recreational Sports Complex, campus events, and for other activities. They are required for use of campus library facilities.

Students must obtain their Loyola identification cards from the Security Office and have them on their persons at all times to present to university officials on demand. Loan of the card to anyone is prohibited. Use of another's card subjects the user, and the loaner, to a fine and/or disciplinary action. Lost or stolen cards should be reported immediately to the Campus Security Office. There is a $10.00 charge for replacement cards. I.D. Cards are used for the full term of enrollment at Loyola. Cards must be validated at the beginning of each semester in the Security Office on the main campus.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Membership in a student organization constitutes one of the best opportunities for law students to achieve educational and professional relevance in non-class time activities. Through participation in law student organizations, students have the opportunity to integrate the experiences of the classroom with the concerns and issues of the legal profession. Of the 80 student organizations chartered by the University, approximately 13 are affiliated directly with the School of Law under the umbrella of the Student Bar Association

Law students are also eligible for membership in non-Law student organizations based upon personal interest and the membership criteria of the student organization.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The Student Government Association consists of elected members representing the four colleges and the School of Law. The SGA acts as the voice of the student body to the university. Through this body, students act as members on most of the university committees in an effort to insure input in areas of student concern. The SGA sponsors programs and services as well as funding student organizations of the university. Meetings of the SGA are held once a week and are open to all students and members of the university community.

COMMUTER SERVICES

The Student Activities Office serves the needs of Loyola University's commuter students, which represent over 75 percent of the student population. The university recognizes its responsibility for responding to their unique needs.

The Commuter Resource Center contains brochures, service listings, carpooling information, literature on campus programs, maps, bus schedules, a message center and other information that involves campus life. The Student Activities Office publishes a Commuter Newsletter that assesses commuter needs, shares pertinent information and serves to bring commuter students together.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT AFFAIRS

The Office of International Student Affairs serves the more than 300 international students currently enrolled at Loyola. International students include students with F-1, J-1 or other non-immigrant visas, students who are not citizens of the United States, students whose first language is not English, and students who do not reside within the continental United States.

The primary function is to provide international students with whatever assistance is needed in adjusting to life here in the U.S. and at Loyola, whether it involves cultural, linguistic, academic, financial, immigration or personal questions. The office coordinates all university programs for international students. In addition, it serves as the liaison between international students and the various university administrative and departmental offices, agencies of the United States government, foreign governments, and private organizations. All student and exchange visitor immigration matters are handled through this office.

Through a wide variety of programs, the office encourages interaction between international students and the university and local communities. Through this interaction, all participants develop an appreciation of other cultures and of their own and maximize their social, cultural, and academic experience.

The director serves as advisor to the International Student Association, a social and cultural organization. In addition, a file is maintained of study abroad materials for all Loyola students interested in studying in another country. The Loyola University-sponsored health insurance is a requirement for all students whose permanent place of residence is outside the Continental United States. Each admitted student will receive the application and information about this insurance prior to their attendance at Loyola.

BROADWAY ACTIVITIES CENTER AND THE JOSEPH A. DANNA CENTER

The Broadway Activities Center, located opposite the School of Law, is a small facility which houses the Broadway Campus Mail Room, and the Pine Street Cafe, a limited food service, offering three meals a day, Monday through Friday, on a cash/Danna Center Cash Card, a la carte basis. Individual storage lockers are available for rental for a nominal fee. A small, temporary, chapel along with rooms suitable for meetings and social events are also housed in the Activities Center. The Broadway Activities Center is under the supervision of the Director of the Joseph A. Danna Center and Student Activities.

The Joseph A. Danna Center located on the main campus is the University Center for the campus community. This Center houses the full-service dining facilities of the University, located in six different locations in the building. The Center Mall contains a travel agency, a hair-stylist shop, a micro computer sales and service store, food service outlets, a copying service and an Automatic/Teller Machine (ATM) of a local bank. Located outside the Mall is a university operated branch of the U.S. Post Office. The Danna Center also contains lounges, meeting rooms, the Danna Center Art Gallery, student organization offices and some Student Affairs administrative offices.

The Danna Center, through the Loyola Union, offers a full range of social, cultural, educational and recreational activities for the entire university community.

RECREATIONAL SPORTS

Sports and recreational activities are vital to students' physical fitness. They can enrich social relationships and provide healthy outlets for emotional tension. The Department of Recreational Sports sponsors intramural and extramural team and individual sports; club sports, organized and run by chartered organizations; outdoor recreation programs such as bicycling and canoeing; and non-credit instructional classes such as exercise and aerobics.

In February of 1988, the Recreational Sports Complex opened its doors. The facility consists of 101,000 square feet and features an Olympic style pool for swimming and diving; six multi-purpose courts for basketball, tennis, volleyball, badminton, soccer and floor hockey; five racquetball courts; a suspended jogging track; weightlifting and fitness rooms. The facility also has locker rooms, each with a sauna and steam room.

THE PLACEMENT PROGRAM

The School of Law Placement Office offers a variety of services. Staffed by The Associate Dean for Special Programs and an Assistant, the office conducts seminars on career planning, employment opportunities and interviewing techniques.

The office actively solicits job opportunities for summer and school term clerkships, as well as employment options for each year's graduating class.

The traditional season for on-campus interviews is in the Fall, beginning in September and ending in November. During that period, the Placement office hosts a variety of law firms, businesses, corporations and government agencies on the campus and conducts over 700 individual interviews.

A smaller, but active, Spring Interview Season is held between February and April, and gives freshmen law students an opportunity to search for possible Summer Clerkships.

Alumni of the School of Law may use the Placement Office services for lateral and horizontal job moves by contacting the office at (504) 861-5560 and requesting they be placed on the Alumni Mailing List. Once a month the office mails an Alumni Opportunity Newsletter to those people on the list.

The office also maintains a Placement Opportunities Bulletin Board on the first floor of the School of Law where all job listings are posted.

The office coordinates a variety of special programs for people with specific career goals, such as Judicial Clerkships and out-of-state employment.

INSTITUTE FOR CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION

The Institute for Continuing Legal Education, was founded in 1982. Under the direction of the Associate Dean for Special Programs and an assistant, it provides a wide range of legal topics for the practitioner who desires to keep abreast of the latest legal developments.

The Institute sponsors approximately seven to eight programs during the academic year and draws registrants from around the country.

Practitioners and judges from Louisiana and other parts of the country serve as guest speakers. The student body and Law Faculty are invited to attend the sessions free of charge.

CAMPUS SECURITY

Campus Security provides all day law enforcement services to the main and Broadway campus on a 24-hour a day basis, throughout the year. Officers are commissioned in accordance with the provisions of Louisiana law R.S. 17-1805 and have full police powers on and off the campus. In addition to these services, Campus Security provides for the registration of vehicles, the free use of engravers for marking of property, and a central lost and found service. Additionally, the Security Office conducts various personal safety awareness campaigns to prevent losses and informs the community of any problems which arise. In addition to these routine services, Campus Security attempts to assist the campus community in any problems which they may have. The central administration office for Security is located on the Main campus, with a branch office in St. Mary's Hall on the Broadway Campus.

PARKING

Students commuting to the School of Law on the Broadway Campus have two options regarding parking:

1. Students may elect to park on city streets in a vicinity of the School of Law. Most city streets in the neighborhood are governed by a two hour (maximum in a 24-hour period) parking limitation within the zone.
2. Students attending day classes may elect to pay an hour/daily rate or purchase a semester or an annual decal in the University Parking Garage located on the main campus and take a free Loyola Shuttle to the Broadway Campus. Students attending classes beginning after 4 p.m. may purchase a decal and park in either of the two university lots on Pine Street.

Rate information and the purchase of decals may be obtained from the Security Office located on the main campus.

Principal attention is given to Louisiana cases, supplemented by the pertinent articles of the Revised Civil Code of Louisiana and the various acts of the Legislature of Louisiana affecting oil and mineral rights. The Louisiana Mineral Code is given coverage in all areas.

LAW 842 The Courts in a Federal System*3 hrs.

Civil Procedure I is a prerequisite for this course; in addition, it is recommended that the student have completed Constitutional Law I. The course deals with requirements of article III of the United States Constitution such as standing, ripeness and mootness. A major portion of the course is devoted to problems relating to concepts of federalism and comity between the state and federal systems. The class also analyzes the relationship between the branches of the federal government, for example, the extent to which Congress may withdraw jurisdiction from those courts and the power of the court to review actions of coequal branches. The course offers a review of jurisdiction based on the existence of diversity and a federal question. The course covers some of the following subjects: the Erie problem; suits against state officials and the state; abstention; injunctions against state proceedings; review of state court judgments.

LAW 843* Administrative Advocacy*3 hrs.

This course will afford students clinical experience in the representation of clients before administrative agencies in rulemaking proceedings. In class meetings students will study the Administrative Procedure Act, statutory constraints on administrative advocacy, publication procedures for the Louisiana Register, state agency structure and organization, and laws governing access to agencies (e.g. open meetings, public records). Each student will represent a client in drafting and publishing a rulemaking petition, as well as presenting testimony and written comments to the agency. Students will receive supervision and direction in their representation of clients before agencies through individual conferences with the instructor. Students will present their rules to the class in a mock agency public hearing that will be videotaped. In addition to the rulemaking petition, each student will prepare substantial (25-30 page) research paper on the substantive topic addressed by the proposed rule; there will be no exam. Up to 16 students from Loyola and Tulane will be admitted based on interviews and a short written submission.

LAW 844 Administrative Law*3 hrs.

This course deals with the creation and functions of administrative tribunals, the procedure before such tribunals, and judicial relief from administrative action.

LAW 845 Mass Communications Law*3 hrs.

Any clinical hours in excess of nine will not count toward the 90 credit hours required for graduation.

LAW 847     Legislation*3 hrs.

A study of the theory of legislation and the practice of legislative bodies—federal, state and local—including their relationship to the executive and judicial branches of government. Topics surveyed in the course include such issues as sovereignty and legislative jurisdiction; the legislative process; the relationship between statutory law and the common law; statutory law and the codal tradition; statutory drafting and interpretation; lobbying and the media; and law reform and social change. A portion of the course will involve clinical education, consisting of field work by students with legislators involving legislative research and drafting. Students will present their bills in a mock committee hearing that will be videotaped. Enrollment will be limited to a total of 20 students and will be open to Tulane law students.

LAW 848     Antitrust Law*3 hrs.

A study of the role that federal legislation (the Sherman Act, the Clayton Act, and the Federal Trade Commission Act) plays in preserving a competitive economic system. Price fixing devices, boycotts, tying restrictions, misuse of patents, and corporate mergers are analyzed in order to discern what types of conduct are condemned by the antitrust laws. The subject matter of the course serves as an example in affording the student the opportunity to observe the development of law in pursuit of policy goals and to formulate his own ideas concerning the function of law in a complex social and economic system.

LAW 849     Patent Law*2 hrs.

The course focuses on the means for obtaining legal protection of patentable and unpatentable inventions as well as technical knowledge. Licensing and aspects of litigation affecting these rights also will be discussed.

LAW 850     Copyright Law*3 hrs.

This course consists of a detailed exploration of the protection of creative expression — literature, music, visual art, and motion pictures. While focusing primarily on the copyright act, the course also will consider those areas of patent and trademark law that overlap with copyright or form the boundaries. We will be especially concerned with the challenges created by new technology, such as computers, home video recorders, and cable television. Additionally, some attention will be given to related doctrines in other countries.

LAW 851     Client Interviewing, Counseling, and Negotiation*3 hrs.

This primary purpose of this course is to expose the student to the processes of negotiation, interviewing and counseling as pervasive lawyering activities; to increase awareness of the technical, inter-disciplinary and ethical dimension of those processes; to introduce the concept of the lawyer's role as a problem solver; to enable the student to experiment with and thoughtfully consider the various theories, forms and techniques of negotiation and dispute resolution; and to provide an opportunity to assess individual capabilities within those contexts.

LAW 852* Legislative Process*3 hrs.

Each student will represent a client in researching and drafting proposed legislation for introduction at the Louisiana Legislature. Students will meet with clients, knowledgeable resource people and supporters to design the proposed legislation; with legislators willing to sponsor the bill; and with potential opponents to negotiate compromises. Class meetings will address such topics as the enactment process, legislative drafting techniques, constitutional rules governing the legislative process, the role of lobbyists and legislators, and statutory constraints on legislative advocacy. Students will receive individual supervision and direction in periodic meetings with the instructor and legislative coordinator. Students will present their proposed draft of legislation to the class in a mock committee hearing that will be videotaped. In addition to drafts of legislation, each student will prepare a substantial (25-30 page) background paper regarding the legislative topic. There will be no exam. Up to 16 students from Loyola and Tulane will be admitted on the basis of an interview and short written submission.

LAW 853 Family Law Seminar*2 hrs.

Students having completed the Civil Law Persons Course and/or Common Law Family Law Course, will have an opportunity in this seminar to conduct an intensive study of one or more issues in family law. The students will investigate marriage, the parent-child relationship and other contemporary family models in a comparative format, with each student responsible for a class presentation and written paper in a specific topic in the area.

LAW 854 Insurance*3 hrs.

Examples are parental rights and duties and their termination; neglect and abuse; judicial supervision of custody in foster homes or institutions; medical and psychological treatment; statutory limitations on children's freedoms; statutory guarantees of children's rights including rights of handicapped children.

LAW 856 State and Local Government Law*3 hrs.

A study of the legal aspects of intergovernmental relationships including the distribution of power among the federal, state, and local governments. Organization and reorganization of local governmental entities, home rule, metropolitan government, and financing of the local government are among the subjects covered. The legal issues are related to the greatest extent possible to contemporary American urban developments.

LAW 857 Employee Remedies (Personal Injuries)*3 hrs.

A study and comparison of the remedies generally available to an employee against an employer resulting from an industrial accident. It is an in-depth study of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act (formerly LAW 863) and the Louisiana Workmen's Compensation Act (formerly LAW 868). The Jones Act is also considered as a possible remedy, as are problems of election of remedies and concurrent jurisdiction. The coverages of and benefits provided by the two acts are compared, and applicable insurance issues are analyzed. Maritime Personal Injury (LAW 866) and/or Admiralty (LAW 864), although not prerequisites, are helpful if taken prior to this course.

*Administrative Advocacy-LAW 843, Legislative Advocacy-LAW 846, and Legislative Process-LAW 852 are considered clinical courses as is Clinical Seminar - LAW 897. A student may take one of the three courses in the junior year and two semesters of the Clinical Seminar in the senior year. Any clinical hours in excess of nine will not count toward the 90 credit hours required for graduation.

LAW 858 Environmental Law*3 hrs.

A survey covering legal controls concerned with protection of the environment. The concept of environmental quality and the role of the lawyer in representing those concerned with or affected by programs and policies aimed at its protection will be the basic subject matter. Special emphasis will be given to federal and state administrative programs for control of air and water pollution. Basic questions of public policy — e.g., how to reconcile environmental protection with economic growth and increasing demands for sources of energy, how and by whom should such decisions be made, and how can the use of expertise and systematic analysis in decision-making be reconciled with the goals of pluralism and participation — will be examined through a series of case studies.

LAW 859 Regulation of Sports and Entertainment Industries*3 hrs.

This course will apply concepts from labor law, contract law, antitrust law and communications law. It begins with an overview of the legal aspects of the sports and entertainment industries. In the field of professional athletics, the course will review collective bargaining agreements, standard player contracts and judicial cases. Also the course will investigate the roles of players' union and leagues. Torts and criminal liability in sports will be examined. As to the entertainment industry, topics will include licensing agreements and the financing of productions and certain aspects of copyright law. Consideration will be given to representation of the athlete or artist in negotiating contracts and endorsements. Management details such as the incorporation of the entertainer or athlete, the deferral of income and tax shelters will be studied.

LAW 860 Administration of Criminal Justice II*3 hrs.

A study of the common problems of criminal prosecution from the instigation of charges through the trial process to the handling of post conviction remedies. The Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure would be employed. The course is open to both civil and common law students.

LAW 861 Trial Practice Seminar*2 hrs.

A study of the functions of the advocate in the preparation and trial of law suits with special emphasis upon the methods of preparation and development of facts into evidence for presentation in court; strategic use of discovery devices such as interrogatories, depositions, admissions and motions to produce; typical use of rules of procedure and substantive law in trial proceedings, tactical and ethical aspects of problems confronting the trial lawyer; practical applications of principles in trial moot court. This course is open to selected students who have completed the course in evidence.

LAW 862 Criminal Law Seminar*2 hrs.

This is a seminar devoted to in depth treatment of one or more topics of concern in the criminal law or procedure. The exact subjects to be considered will be chosen by the instructor.

LAW 864 Admiralty*3 hrs.

This is a course that reviews the principles of admiralty and maritime law, including statutory modifications, in the following areas: jurisdiction, the nature of in rem and in personam jurisdiction, maritime liens, the contract of affreightment and COGSA, limitation of liability, general average, the law of collision, the tug and tow relationship, and salvage.

LAW 865 Juvenile Law Seminar*2 hrs.

Intended to be a practical course to give students experience with live problems, this seminar requires a paper relating to the observation of merits, faults, and recommendations for improvement in the juvenile justice system or parts of it. These conclusions must result from individual and group visits to court and to facilities to which the child in trouble is exposed, and from speakers and interviews, all as compared with ideals and trends learned from casebook reading, classroom discussion, and library research.

LAW 866 Maritime Personal Injury 3 hrs.

A study of the law governing personal injury and wrongful death claims under the general maritime law and federal and state statutory law. Both jurisdictional and substantive law issues are considered. There is a detailed treatment of the law relative to seamen, including "status seamen", the warranty of seaworthiness, maintenance and cure, indemnity and contribution, persons employed in marsh lands, on platforms and special purpose vessels located on the Outer Continental Shelf. Admiralty (LAW 864) or permission of the instructor is a prerequisite.

LAW 867 Business Planning 2 hrs.

Prerequisites for this seminar are Legal Accounting, Corporations and Taxation I. This seminar combines advanced work in corporations, corporate financing and federal taxation in the context of business planning and counseling. The seminar will be based upon a series of problems involving common business transactions, which present corporate and tax issues for analysis and resolution. The problems will cover such topics as the formation and financing of corporations, both closely held and publicly owned, stock redemption, the sale and purchase of businesses, mergers and other forms of acquisition and recapitalization, division and dissolution of corporations. Students will be expected to form groups, and written solutions to problems may be required from time to time from each group.

LAW 868 Workmen's Compensation 2 hrs.

This course consists of a study of the Louisiana law relative to tort liability of master and servant and the Louisiana workmen's compensation law.

LAW 870 Federal Taxation of Wealth Transmission 3 hrs.

This course considers the impact of federal taxation on the transmission of wealth. Primary emphasis is placed on exploring the gift and estate tax systems; the generation-skipping transfer tax system, as well as related income tax problems are also considered.

LAW 871 Advanced Federal Income Taxation 2 hrs.

Advanced study of federal income taxation emphasizing planning considerations which affect the personal and commercial transactions of individual taxpayers. Prerequisite: Income taxation — LAW 780.

LAW 872 Federal Income Tax of Corporations 2 hrs.

This course will be devoted to the federal income taxation of corporations and shareholders with primary emphasis on the tax aspect of incorporating, liquidating, and operating business and corporate forms.

LAW 873 Taxation of Partnerships 2 hrs.

This course involves a study of the tax treatment of the formation, operation and termination of general and limited partnerships, and tax sheltered investments. Class discussion will focus on definition of the partnership and the possible treatment of a partnership as an association. Prerequisite: Income taxation — LAW 780.

LAW 874 Federal Tax Procedure 2 hrs.

Prerequisite: Tax I. This course deals with numerous aspects of federal tax procedure. Specifically, the course will cover administrative procedures before the Internal Revenue Service, an analysis of the statutory notice procedures, the entire spectrum of litigating a case before the United States Tax Court and District Court, extended periods of limitations, additions to tax and other problems that a practitioner might encounter while handling a tax case. Prerequisite: Income Taxation - LAW 780.

LAW 876 Conflict of Laws 3 hrs.

This course deals with the law relating to transactions with elements in more than one state. Emphasis is placed upon the problems of choice of laws to be applied in a given situation where the laws of the states involved differ. This problem is examined with respect to actions in tort, workmen's compensation, contract, family law, and decedents' estates. Consideration is given to constitutional issues, the theoretical bases for the choice of laws, and questions relating to the jurisdiction of courts and the enforcement of foreign judgments.

LAW 877 Constitutional Law Seminar*2 hrs.

This is a seminar devoted to in depth treatment of one or more topics of current controversy concerning constitutional law. The exact subjects to be considered will be chosen by the instructor. Seminar members will submit term papers in completion of course requirements.

LAW 878 International Law*3 hrs.

This introductory course acquaints students with the theory and practice of a distinct legal system. The sources and mode of discourse of the international legal system are studied in sufficient detail to allow the student to undertake further work in the discipline. Detailed examination will be undertaken of several substantive areas of international law. These areas will be selected from such topics as the following: jurisdiction of states, international criminal law, law of the sea, international protection of human rights, laws of war and regulation of resort to force by states.

LAW 879 International Commercial Law*3 hrs.

In the first phase of this course students will discuss the legal framework under which U.S. foreign commerce functions. This framework includes federal and state statutes, court and administrative decisions, treaties, foreign laws, and the rules of multinational organizations. In the second phase of the course each student will present a report advising a client in respect of his interests in this field.

LAW 881 Comparative Law*3 hrs.

This course will analyze several aspects of the contemporary world's major legal systems. Topics to be examined include sources of law, the role of the courts and the status and function of the legal profession. One or more areas of substantive or procedural law will be examined as an example of application of the law in several of these legal systems.

LAW 882 Jurisprudence*3 hrs.

This course deals with the history of the natural law. It appraises such schools of jurisprudence as the analytical, historical, philosophical, sociological, and realist in the light of that law. The natural law basis of the principal juridical institutions in the Roman and Anglo-American legal systems is considered, as well as the creative role of the natural law in contemporary law-making.

LAW 883 Dialogues in Law and Ethics*2 hrs.

This course will attempt to sharpen the students critical awareness of the sensitive moral and ethical problems inherent in the legal enterprise. The goal is to sensitize the prospective counselor, advocate, legislator and judge to these problems while helping him develop the ability to resolve them in a fashion most respectful of the personal human values affected. The course will draw on a variety of interdisciplinary readings and will involve persons experienced in some facet of the problems discussed.

LAW 884 International Law Seminar*2 hrs.

Students with a background in the subject will conduct an intensive study of one or more issues in international law. These issues will be identified by the instructor prior to registration. Prerequisites: LAW 878 International Law and stipulated requirements. Limited enrollment.

LAW 885 Sex Discrimination Law Seminar*2 hrs.

This course deals with the law in the areas of sex-based discrimination. Emphasis on discrimination in family law, constitutional law, criminal law, education and employment opportunities. Consideration will be given to the legal status of both sexes and the changing emphasis toward equalization of the status of the sexes.

LAW 887 Federal Taxation Seminar*2 hrs.

A consideration of selected problems in taxation under the Internal Revenue Code. Limited to 20 students. Prerequisite: Income Taxation -LAW 780.

LAW 891* Law Review Honors Tutorial*2 hrs.

This tutorial is open to candidates for Law Review who have successfully completed the junior law review requirements as determined by the Student Editorial Board and 1) completes service on the Executive Board, or 2) completes a publishable comment under the tutorship of a member of the faculty.

LAW 892* (Seminar) — Law Review*1 hr.

Should the candidate for Law Review Honors Tutorial develop the publishable comment as a part of a regular seminar the seminar course description on the record of the student will have the addition of “ — Law Review” to the seminar description and an added hour of credit assigned to the seminar.

LAW 897** Clinical Seminar*6 or 9 hrs.

During the first semester, after a period of orientation, students will be assigned cases, civil or criminal, and will be expected to prepare these cases for trial. Such preparation will include investigation, interrogation, discovery, pleading, research, and writing of memoranda. Students will also be expected to observe the trial of cases which they have prepared. Thereafter, students will actually participate in the trial process. A minimum of 10 hours per week in this field work will be required as well as attendance at a two hour bi-weekly seminar meeting. A maximum of six credit hours of graded (A, B+, B, etc.) credit may be obtained for this course. Any hours in excess of six will be graded on a Pass/Fail basis. Normally, for a Student who starts this course during the summer, the first three hours will be for Pass/Fail credit.

LAW 898* Legal Research*1 or 2 hrs.

Permission of the dean is required to register for the course. This course is designed to develop skill in legal research, analysis, and writing. This course may be taken for 2 hours of credit to satisfy the writing requirement. Additional hours of credit may only be taken by students in good academic standing.

LAW 899* Independent Study*1 or 2 hrs.

Permission of the dean is required to register for this course. It is open only to students in good academic standing. It is designed to permit a student to do in depth study in an approved subject matter. Appropriate written documentation pertinent to the study is required, but the course does not necessarily entail a single research and writing product as is the case with Legal Research, LAW 898. This course may sometimes involve working for an outside agency (i.e., an “extern” program), with general supervision by the designated faculty member. (Normally graded on a Pass/Fail basis.)

*Under no circumstances can a student elect any combination of course numbers Law 891, 892, or 898 that would result in more than five hours. Also, under no circumstances may a student elect any combination of course numbers 898 and 899 that would result in more than six hours.

**Students may register for a maximum of nine hours in course number 897, which must be taken in consecutive sessions. The summer session will be graded Pass/Fail and earn no quality points. The fall and spring sessions will receive alphabetical grades and be eligible for quality points. Students who register for only the summer and fall sessions may receive only three hours of alphabetical grades and earn quality points for those hours. In no event may a student receive more than six hours of quality hours for this course.

LCIV 810 Title Examination*1 hr.

This course covers the substantive law, procedures, and technique of the legal examination of titles to Louisiana immovable property. Practical problems will be presented in the description of property, the derivation of titles, and the drafting of documents conveying or encumbering immovable property.

LCIV 815 Civil Code: Problems and Doctrine*3 hrs.

An exploration of the Civil Code as a whole with a study of developed doctrine and its use in problem solving. Limited to seniors.

LCIV 861 Louisiana Probate Seminar*2 hrs.

Knowledge of the substantive law of inheritance is a prerequisite. This seminar features the handling of decedents' estates pursuant to the Louisiana Code of Civil Procedure of 1960 and related legal precepts. Accentuated are the prompt settlement of creditors' claims and legacies at the lowest costs. Included are the administration of minors' estates and estates of interdicted persons.

LCIV 862 Louisiana Probate*3 hrs.

This course will cover substantially the same range of material as LCIV 861 but in a course format.

Law Common (Prefix 0603)*LCOM 800 Family Law*3 hrs.

A survey of the law regulating marriage and other interpersonal relationships. Topics to be considered include marriage, alternate forms of social organization, rights concerning procreation, divorce, child custody, financial aspects of family dissolution, the legal regulation of the parent-child relationship, children's rights, and the state's role in protecting children from neglect and abuse, and adoption.

LCOM 805 Estate Planning*2 hrs.

Prerequisite: Taxation I, Trusts and Estates. An examination of the various methods of preserving, increasing and disposing of wealth. Emphasis is placed on the tax implications of transfers within the family group as well as transfers for the benefit of charitable organizations. Attention is given to the use of generation skipping transfers, class gifts, and the creation of future interests by trust instruments.

THE HONOR CODE

CHAPTER 1 STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

- 1.01 The purpose of this Honor Code is to establish the rules by which the students of the Loyola University School of Law shall govern their conduct with respect to any academic matter.
- 1.02 The purpose of the Honor Board is to serve in an advisory capacity to the Dean of the Law School, to investigate alleged Honor Code violations, to deliberate and recommend sanctions when a violation has occurred.

CHAPTER 2 SCOPE

- 2.01 This Honor Code applies to any academic matter pertaining to the Loyola School of Law.
- 2.02 "Academic Matter" means any activity which may affect a grade or in any way contribute toward the satisfaction of the requirements for graduation, without reference to the locus of such activity. Academic matters shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:
  - (a) Any examination;
  - (b) Any research or other assignment to be done for a course outside of class;
  - (c) Any work which is in whole or in partial satisfaction of requirements to receive credit for participation in any activity for which credit is given.

CHAPTER 3 PROHIBITED CONDUCT

- 3.01 In any academic matter it shall be a violation of the Honor Code to engage in any of the following:
  - (a) To use materials:
    - (1) in an exam, other than those specifically authorized by the instructor;
    - (2) in research or other writing assignment, which are specifically forbidden by the instructor.
  - (b) To submit as one's own work the work of another.
  - (c) To make any material misrepresentation as to work toward satisfaction of the minimum requirements for grade or credit in any activity for which credit is given.
  - (d) To fail to respond when called upon in class.
  - (e) Falsification of an attendance roll.
- 3.02 In addition to the violations enumerated in section 3.01, it shall be a violation of the Honor Code to engage in any conduct which tends to gain an unfair advantage for any student in any academic matter. Such conduct shall include, but is not limited to, the tape recording of a class lecture without the professor's consent.
- 3.03 The failure of any student to report a violation of the Honor Code shall be considered a violation of the Honor Code.

CHAPTER 4 ADMINISTRATION

- 4.01 There shall be a Honor Code Review Board:
  - (a) It shall be composed of three members of each Day School class and one member of each Night School class. The term of office shall be from April 1 to March 31 of each academic year. The terms of Freshmen Honor Board Representatives shall be October 15 to March 31. Graduating Senior Representatives shall continue to serve until they have graduated.

- (b) The members shall be elected by the student body in their respective divisions. Candidates shall indicate their desire to attain this position by submitting their names by petition of ten percent (10%) of their class to the chairman of the Honor Board.
    - (1) Senior (day and night), Junior (day and night), and Sophomore Night Board Representatives elections shall be held with the Spring S.B.A. elections. Freshman Honor Board Representative elections shall be held in the second week of October of the Fall semester.
    - (2) All vacancies shall be filled by appointment of the Chairman after consultation with the Honor Board Representatives of that class. The appointment shall be subject to the approval of the Dean of the Law School.
  - (c) Within twenty-one days of the beginning of the new term the Honor Code Review Board shall:
    - (1) Elect its own Chairman, who shall preside at all meetings.
    - (2) Elect a Co-Chairman, who shall preside over the Investigation Committee and who shall promulgate the Honor Code to the students and faculty.
    - (3) Elect a Secretary who shall maintain all documents, record all proceedings, and ensure that all elections are conducted promptly and fairly.
    - (4) Establish its own rules of procedure. These rules shall be reviewed and published yearly.
  - (d) One faculty representative and an alternate shall be chosen by the Dean of the Law School to represent the faculty on the Honor Board.
- 4.02 The Code of Procedure of the Honor Code Review Board.
- (a) Complaint: Any conduct which amounts to a violation of the Honor Code shall not be acted upon by the Honor Board unless a complaint is filed with an Honor Board Representative.
  - (b) Who May File a Complaint: A complaint may be filed by any faculty member or student of the School of Law, including an Honor Board Representative in his/her capacity as a student.
  - (c) Form of the Complaint: All complaints alleging a violation of the Honor Code shall be in writing, shall be signed by the complainant, and shall include the following facts:
    - (1) The date of the alleged violation.
    - (2) The class and section in which or for which the violation occurred.
    - (3) The name(s) of the offending student(s).
    - (4) The statement of the alleged violation of the Honor Code.
  - (d) Sufficiency of Complaint: A complaint is sufficient to warrant an investigation if it is signed by the complainant and the name(s) of the alleged offending student(s) are stated.
  - (e) Prescription/Statute of Limitation: A complaint must be filed and delivered to the Honor Board within ten (10) calendar days of the alleged violation, or the discovery thereof.
  - (f) Submission to the Chairman: All complaints shall be directed to the Honor Board Chairman.
  - (g) Investigation Committee: The Chairman shall appoint an Investigation Committee to be composed of the Co-Chairman plus two (2) members of the Honor Board. All three members shall have a vote in the determination of probable cause.

- (h) Investigation of the Complaint: The investigation of the complaint shall last no longer than fifteen (15) days from the filing of the complaint with the Chairman. The defendant shall have the right to a Student Defense Counselor. If the defendant requests, the Chairman shall appoint a Student Defense Counselor. The defendant may answer the complaint within three (3) days of his/her notification with a short, plain statement of the facts surrounding the alleged violation.
- (i) Determination of Probable Cause: The Investigation Committee shall:
  - (1) determine that the facts and circumstances suggest that a violation of the Honor Code has occurred. Only one member of the Investigation Committee needs to vote that probable cause does exist in order to go forward with a hearing; or
  - (2) retain the complaint if the defendant has admitted the violation and has recommended a sanction for himself subject to the approval of the Hearing Committee; or
  - (3) by unanimous vote, dismiss the complaint if it is determined that:
    - i. the complaint was brought for the sole purpose of injuring the defendant's character or reputation;
    - ii. it is frivolous;
    - iii. it is unsubstantiated by the facts or evidence surrounding the alleged violation.
- (j) Schedule of a Hearing: The Chairman shall schedule a full hearing before the Honor Board no later than twenty (20) days after the complaint has been filed, unless exigent circumstances intervene.
- (k) Duty to Inform: The defendant, the complainant, and their witnesses shall be notified in writing of the time and place of the scheduled hearing. Notification may be given by letter in a sealed envelope to the parties, mailed to the parties, or put in the parties' student folders.
- (l) Duty to Attend: The defendant and the complainant and their witnesses shall attend the scheduled hearing.
- (m) Hearing Committee: The Hearing Committee shall consist of the Chairman, at least five (5) additional representatives plus an alternate and one (1) non-voting faculty member. No member of the Investigation Committee may be a member of the Hearing Committee. Any representative may recuse himself/herself for cause. The hearing shall be tape recorded.
- (n) Conduct of the Hearing: Members of the Hearing Committee shall receive a copy of the complaint and answer at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance of a scheduled hearing. The Chairman shall conduct the hearing and it shall be conducted in private. Formal rules of evidence and procedure shall not apply.
  - (1) The Chairman shall read the complaint and answer while all interested parties are present.
  - (2) Only the Hearing Committee, the defendant and the Student Defense Counselor may be present throughout the entirety of the hearing.
  - (3) The complainant and his/her witnesses shall be called one by one in whatever order is preferred.
  - (4) The defendant and his/her witnesses shall be called one by one in whatever order is preferred.
  - (5) The Investigation Committee may be called if necessary.

- (6) The complainant and defendant shall be allowed to make closing statements. The defendant shall be allowed to cross-examine any witness in a reasonable manner.
- (o) Deliberation: After the presentation of the evidence, the Hearing Committee shall deliberate.
  - (1) Discussion will take place on the evidence presented.
  - (2) When the Chairman has determined that a consensus has been reached, a vote shall be called.
  - (3) The standard for determining that a violation has been committed shall be upon the clear and convincing preponderance of the evidence.
- (p) Verdict: The exact nature of the violation, if any, shall be identified and a verdict will be reached by secret ballot. A violation is found, if a majority of the members of the Hearing Committee vote in favor of conviction. If no violation is found, the charges will be dismissed.
- (q) If a Violation is Found: The Hearing Committee shall recommend one of the following sanctions to the Dean of the Law School:
  - (1) Expulsion, with a recommendation that the conviction be included in the student's record.
  - (2) Expulsion, with a recommendation that the conviction not be included in the student's record.
  - (3) Suspension for one or more semesters, with or without a recommendation that the conviction be included in the student's record.
  - (4) Failure of the course connected with the offense.
  - (5) Grade drop in the course connected with the offense.
  - (6) Letter of conviction included in the student's permanent record.
  - (7) Letter of conviction included in the student's permanent record, subject to removal upon graduation.
  - (8) Special sanctions of lesser degree can be applied by the Hearing Committee on a case-by-case basis when necessary (e.g., restitution for damage or misappropriation of property).
- (r) Decision: The defendant shall be advised of the verdict and, if found guilty, the sanction to be recommended to the Dean of the Law School by the Honor Board Hearing Committee. If there is a finding of guilt, the defendant will also be informed that the decision will be submitted to the faculty for review and of his/her rights to appeal.

Once the defendant is dismissed, the complainant shall be advised of the verdict and, if applicable, the sanction to be recommended.
- (s) Opinion: The Chairman shall appoint a member of the Hearing Committee to submit a written majority opinion of each proceeding to the Dean of the Law School. A dissenting opinion may be submitted also. The opinion is to be confidential unless such confidentiality is expressly waived by the defendant. Upon waiver, the opinion shall be placed on Reserve in the Loyola Law Library for fifteen (15) days.

THE STORY OF LOYOLA UNIVERSITY

The Jesuits were among the earliest settlers of New Orleans and Louisiana. A Jesuit chaplain accompanied Iberville on his second expedition. The fathers are credited with introducing the growing of sugar cane to Louisiana, paving the way for one of the state's prime industries. They probably brought this from their West Indies farms and planted it on the plantation they bought from former Governor Bienville in 1725. This tract, used by the Fathers as a staging area or supply base for their activities in ministering to the needs of settlers and Indians in the up-country, was located "across the common" (now Canal Street), running along the river to about Jackson Ave. When the Jesuit order was banned from the French colonies in 1763, the land was sold at public auction.

The city's leaders, including Bienville, had long hoped for a Jesuit college. After the Jesuit order was restored, the Bishop of New Orleans implored the Jesuits in France to come to the city. In 1837 seven Jesuit priests arrived. After weighing several sites, they decided that Grand Coteau, in St. Landry Parish, was a better site for their boarding college than the fever-ridden city.

Meanwhile, New Orleans continued its dramatic growth, despite yellow fever. The desire for a Jesuit college here intensified in both the citizens and the fathers. In 1847 the priests bought a small piece of the same land they owned nearly a century before and in 1849 the College of the Immaculate Conception opened its doors at the corner of Baronne and Common Streets.

This college became a well established and beloved institution. As the city grew, however, it became obvious to Rev. John O'Shanahan, S.J., superior general of the province, that the downtown area would become too congested for a college. He began looking for a suburban site.

The Cotton Centennial Exposition in 1884 had given impetus to the development of the uptown section of the city, especially around Audubon Park. This area was reached by the New Orleans and Carrollton Railroad which ran from Lee Circle to the City of Carrollton on the present roadbed of the St. Charles streetcar line. Father O'Shanahan learned that a large site directly across from the park was available. This was the site of the Foucher Plantation, owned by Paul Foucher, son of a New Orleans mayor and son-in-law of Etienne de Bore, famed as the granulator of sugar from cane syrup.

The entire Foucher site was offered to Father O'Shanahan for the sum of $75,500. It included the land now occupied by Loyola and Tulane universities, Sophie Newcomb College, and Audubon Place. The priest's advisors dissuaded him from purchasing this lest the acquisition of such a large tract bring on the charge of commercialism. He acceded, but said later he wished he had not since he could have within 10 days sold enough of the property "to pay for the entire tract I bought and to put aside a sinking fund for the education of our young men."

The section of the Foucher estate Father O'Shanahan bought in 1886 fronted on St. Charles and ran approximately to the Claiborne canal. It was purchased with the assistance of Chief Justice Edward Douglass White, a Jesuit alumnus, and the Brousseau family.

The price was $22,500, paid in three installments at six percent interest. On the day the act was signed, the fathers were offered $7,500 more for the property.

In May, 1890 the parish of Most Holy Name of Jesus was established for the area. Rev. John Downey, S.J., was the first pastor. A frame church, known affectionately among Orleanians as "little Jesuits," was built and Mass was celebrated in it in May, 1892.

In 1904, the long-planned Loyola College, together with a preparatory academy, opened its doors. First classes were held in a residence located to the rear of the church on what is now Marquette Place. First president was the Rev. Albert Bieber, S.J., who was appointed by the provincial, Rev. William Power, S.J.

The college grew steadily. Father Bieber promised and did give a holiday when the student body reached 50. In 1907 Father Bieber called a meeting of prominent Catholic laymen to plan for a new building. Acting chairman was W. E. Claiborne. Out of his group grew the Marquette Association for Higher Education with B.A. Oxnard as chairman. This group, with the assistance of its ladies auxiliary, was responsible for the building in 1910 of Marquette Hall, queen of Loyola's buildings and centerpiece of its campus horseshoe.

Strongly encouraged by Archbishop Blenk and prominent New Orleanians, the Jesuits and the Marquette Association had several years previously begun to make plans for expansion to a university.

In 1911 the Jesuit schools in New Orleans were reorganized. Immaculate Conception College became exclusively a college preparatory school and was given the preparatory students of Loyola College. The downtown institution relinquished its higher departments — what are now known as college programs — to Loyola, which was in the process of becoming a university.

On May 28, 1912, a bill was introduced in the Louisiana Senate by Senator William H. Byrnes, Jr. of Orleans Parish which proposed to grant a university charter to Loyola. It was passed unanimously and sent to the State House of Representatives. There was some backstage opposition and Father Bieber, fearing a fatal snag, made an impassioned speech to the house. The bill passed and on July 10, 1912, the governor signed the act authorizing Loyola to grant university degrees.

Under the direction of the dynamic Father Bieber and with the advice and financial support of New Orleans citizens, the new university grew dramatically. Thomas Hall, residence for the fathers, was dedicated in 1912. The new church known as the McDermott Memorial, with its soaring tower arose in 1913.

In that year also the New Orleans College of Pharmacy, incorporated in 1900 by its founder, Dr. Philip Asher, chose to affiliate with Loyola. In 1919 the college merged completely with the university. The college was discontinued in 1965.

The School of Dentistry was organized in 1914 with Dr. C. Victor Vignes as first dean. First classes were held in Marquette Hall. The school was transferred to Bobet Hall when that building was completed in 1924. The college was phased out between 1968 and 1971 and picked up a class a year by the Louisiana State University Medical Center.

The School of Law was also established in 1914 with Judge John St. Paul as founding dean. First classes were held at night in Alumni Hall near the College of Immaculate Conception. However, after the first year they were moved to the new university. In 1973 the Law School moved into an ultra-modern building specifically designed for that purpose.

Dr. Ernest Schuyten had founded the New Orleans Conservatory of Music and Dramatic Art in 1919. It was first located at Felicity and Coliseum Streets, and later moved to Jackson Ave. and Carondelet St. It was incorporated into Loyola University in 1932 as the College of Music. The next year it moved to its present home on campus with Dr. Schuyten as dean.

From 1926 to 1947 a four year degree program leading to a bachelor of science degree in economics was offered by the College of Arts and Sciences. In 1947 the department of commerce of A & S expanded into the full-fledged College of Business Administration granting a bachelor of business administration degree. The college moved into Stallings Hall, shortly thereafter. Dr. John V. Conner was the first dean. In 1950 the college was admitted to associate membership in the American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business, and in 1957 the college was admitted to full membership. In 1983 the College was renamed the Joseph A. Butt, S.J. College of Business Administration in honor of Jesuit priest who taught generations of Loyola business students. The College moved to Miller Hall, its present home, in 1986.

The university thus has a colorful and distinguished history marked by the zeal and scholarship of the Jesuit fathers and the valued advice and support of leading citizens of New Orleans. Hundreds of the city's top leaders received their education from the Jesuits at Loyola University, or its predecessor, the College of the Immaculate Conception. Teachers, scientists, attorneys, pharmacists, musicians, and business executives call Loyola their alma mater.

Loyola has a colorful sports history. The doubledecker stadium on Freret St. was the scene of exciting football games, including the first collegiate night game in the south. Olympic and national champions have worn the maroon and gold. Intercollegiate athletics was discontinued in 1972.

Loyola in 1964 completed major physical plant expansion with the dedication of three new buildings, a 404-student residence hall, a university center named "Dr. Joseph A. Danna Student Center," and a central heating cooling plant. In 1967 Buddig Hall, a 412-student women's residence, was dedicated.

In 1969, the university completed the largest academic structure in its history, the 180,000-square-foot J. Edgar Monroe Memorial Science Building. This impressive structure houses science oriented departments.

In 1984, the university purchased the 4.2-acre Broadway Campus, formerly the campus of St. Mary's Dominican College. The Broadway campus, located on St. Charles Avenue at Broadway, is a few blocks from Loyola's main campus. Major renovations were completed to two existing buildings in 1986, creating modernized housing for the School of Law and Law Library.

In 1986, a 115,000-square-foot Communications/Music Building was dedicated. The building, constructed on the corner of St. Charles Avenue and Calhoun Street, houses the Communications Department and the College of Music. The building boasts, in addition to the latest technology for broadcasting and music studios, the 600-seat Louis J. Roussel Performance Hall.

The six-level Recreation Sports Complex was dedicated in February, 1988. The first four floors are parking with the top two floors a recreation center.

Today Loyola is the largest Catholic university south of St. Louis in an area extending from Arizona to Florida. It is open to students of all faiths.
